Waste Management Board to meet Wednesday

by Jeff Wilson

The Centre and South Hastings Waste Management Board will meet on Wednesday, Jan. 10 in Batawa to hear a recommendation by the Executive Committee regarding contracting out to private enterprise.

The board meeting had been tentatively scheduled for Jan. 25, but was moved up after the executive committee was able to come up with a recommendation for the board, Chairman Tom Deline said in an interview. The executive committee met on Dec. 20 and passed a recommendation to the board. Deline said committee had attempted to form a recommendation during a November meeting, but did not have enough information from the private companies. The committee then hired Greer Galloway, a consulting firm, to provide some technical review of the companies, which gave the committee a good economic comparison between developing a landfill site and contracting the work out.

The executive committee had originally been asked to return with a recommendation to the board within 30 days after the last board meeting, but were unable to meet that timetable.

Along with the executive committee recommendation, the board will also elect officers for 1996, as well as receive updates from the recycling board, composting, and energy from waste.

The board meeting will be held at the Batawa Community Centre, beginning at 1 p.m.

Provincial transfer payment cuts less than expected

by Jeff Wilson

Local municipalities were braced for large cuts to transfer payments from the province, but received a slight reprieve this time around.

The provincial government sent out letters, a week ago Wednesday, to all the municipalities within the province informing them of the specific transfer cut for the coming year.

Madoc Village Clerk/Treasurer Doug Parks said the village had been braced for a 25 per cent cut in transfers.

The actual percentage cut this year, works out to 12.76 per cent. Last year, the village received $192,808 in unconditional and roads grants from the province, which will be reduced to $168,204 a reduction of $24,604, Parks said.

The village also received a $5,000 grant from the Eldorado, meaning city of Gold will once again echo with the cries of Gold, for once again the hills will be alive to the cheers "Go for Gold", "Go for Gold". The race will begin at the Eldorado Township garage and travel west and back. It will begin the area circuit, with Cooper Caval and Marmora following on successive weekends.

It will also be part of OFSS National Q Crown. This competition includes the races Clairton, Marmora, Bancroft and Tweed.

Year In Review

January

The Madoc area began the new year, on a sad note, mourning the passing of Ken Yarrow, a great community contributor.

Yarrow passed away on Jan. 1 after his long struggle with cancer.

Yarrow was an area resident for more than 30 years and was very active in local politics, as well as the farming community.

As a farmer, he was very active, as a columnist for the newspaper, writing "The Rural Scene" for many years.

On Jan. 3 a Madoc man pleaded guilty to two charges of illegally purchasing black bear gall bladders.

Jay-Chul Shin, 42, of Madoc was initially charged in Madoc on June 8, 1994. He was fined $3,500 for each charge, for a total of $7,000.

Betty Boo Wok Shin, 38, of Madoc also pleaded guilty to illegally purchasing black bear gall bladders. Mrs. Shin received a one-year suspended sentence for her involvement in the illegal purchase in Markham on June 21, 1994.

The Cooper Carnival celebrated its 20th Anniversary in 1995. The festivities included one new event, the chain saw/cross cut event. The Carnival had to be held on two occasions due to weather. The second half was held in February.

A horrific head-on accident occurred on Highway 7, west of Jarvis Road, near Madoc, on Jan. 21. The accident occurred around a.m., sent two people to hospital. According to Madoc OPP a westbound car and an eastbound car collided head-on sending one vehicle into the ditch.

Extraction equipment was needed to free Joann Baker, of Sutton, from the vehicle which came to rest in a swampy area.

Baker was taken to Belleville General Hospital with undetermined injuries. Gerald Pack, of Eldorado, driving the eastbound car, was treated for minor cuts and released.

Both Marmora and Madoc firefighters responded to the accident and worked in co-operation to stabilize the situation.

On the waste management front, the Centre and South Hastings Waste Management Board voted to hold a special meeting to clarify the site selection process, and definition of the two sites. The meeting was suggested for next members just appointed to the board following the municipal election, as well as existing members on the

YOUR LOCAL REAL ESTATE AND CLASSIFIED MARKETPLACE

They Mean Business: Goalie Derek Melkman of the Ernestown Jets scrambles to grab a loose puck in Saturday night's junior all-star game in Campbellford. Putting the pressure on Melkman is Andy Jowell of the Brighton Buzz and his two linemates, with the western all-stars. ## All-star appearace proves nightmare for Picton goalie

Rebels host annual Junior "C" showcase

By Rolly Ethier

The opportunity to perform in an all-star game is generally regarded as a memorable experience for any hockey player.

For goalie Jason Wangaman of the Picton Pirates, who was called upon to play the second period for the western all-stars, however, Saturday night's Empire B Junior Hockey League classic was a nightmare.

With the teams tied at 1-1 at the first intermission, Wangaman took over the netminding duties to start play in the second period. He promptly gave up seven goals on just 14 shots. The Eastern all-stars went on to post a 9-6 victory over the westerners in a crowd-pleasing affair hosted for the first time by the Campbellford Rebels.

The Easterners, comprised of members of the Napanee Raiders, Ernestown Jets and North Frontenac Flyers, pumped in four goals within a span of three minutes and 14 seconds on the beleaguered Wangaman en route to the victory.

Wangaman was one of six netminders chosen to appear in the all-star showcase of EJHL talent. Rebels' John Lalonde left after a solid first period, having given up just one goal. Brandon Upton of the Brighton Buzz took over in the final 20 minutes, yielding two more eastern goals. For the East, Chris Switzer of North Frontenac started, giving up a single goal; Napanee's Eric Weese took over in the second and was beaten three times while Derek Melkman of the Jets permitted the west's final two goals in the third period.

A free-wheeling, crowd-pleasing matchup before a good turnout, referee Ian Sant assessed only five minor penalties throughout.

Although named to play, Rebel captain Trevor Torrance watched from the sidelines with his arm in a sling. He's favouring a strained shoulder that will likely keep him out of action for the next two weeks. He was replaced in the western lineup by a teammate-defenceman Anthony Ferguson.

Speedy Scott Beaubien

of the Jets and a pair of Napanee stars, Jason Sutton and rookie Mike Kingham, led the East to victory, each slamming in two goals, singles going to two North Frontenac stalwarts—Kevin Bradley and Ben Chabot—and Ernestown's Bryan Allen.

Campbellford and Picton players dominated for the west, contributing all six goals. Picton's Shane Cutler clicked for two goals while Matt Carles popped in the west's final goal late in the game. The Rebel sharpshooters were Jim Hazelwood, Kevin Cork and Kevin Larmer. The latter's goal in the second period had the distinction of being the longest scoring shot of the night. Larmer's fired the puck from his own blueline and it trickled in through the legs of an embarrassed Eric Weese.

Many of the league's top rookie talent, all draft possibilities in next summer's OHL draft, were in action. The list included Napanee's Eric Weese and Mike Kingham; North Frontenac's Kevin Bradley and Tim Tebo; Ernestown's Eric Archambeault and Pat Dee; Campbellford's Kevin Cork and Marcus Pollock; Picton's Shane Cutler and two Brighton performers—Lockwood.

The western all-stars were coached by the Campbellford tandem of Trevor Tinney and Tom Tanner.

Former star wrestler who robbed Rabethge's deported to Jamaica

Board makes decision after 29 convictions in Canada

Toronto—A young man, who once was convicted of shoving a sawed-off shotgun into the faces of a terrified staff at Rabethge Jewellers in downtown Campbellford, will be deported to his native Jamaica.

Christopher Wilton Reid, 23, was ordered returned home recently by the Immigration and Refugee Board because of his 29 convictions in Canada.

Reid was a former outstanding amateur wrestler, good enough to earn himself a scholarship to Arizona State University. He forfeited the scholarship after being suspended from West Humber Collegiate in Toronto for allegedly stealing money from his gym teacher and another student. He was later acquitted.

Although Reid claimed during his trial for the robbery at Rabethge's in September of 1989 that he used a "replica" double-barreled shotgun, he and two other men were jailed for six months for the crime. During the robbery, two women were handcuffed and two others ordered downstairs as the robbers loaded up a garbage pail with jewelry, the board said.

Reid was living in a Campbellford group home under the care of the Children's Aid Society for three years when he and two other males robbed Rabethge's. According to officials, Reid attempted to minimize his actions in the robbery by saying the weapon used was a toy as were the handcuffs.

Reid was also penalized for getting into two fights while in Cobourg jail. He justified getting into the trouble to the board because he said he was angry with himself for losing the U.S. scholarship.

He will be deported to Jamaica whenever travel arrangements can be made.

New venture... Tom and Kristen Lawrence, of Marmora, have purchased a retail fishing store, formerly known as Fishing Plus, and now called Quinte Fishing Centre Ltd. The business is located in the Harbourview Plaza, directly across from The Sea Cow Restaurant in Belleville. Tom brings 10 years of fisheries experience to his new business, having worked for the Ministry of Natural Resources on the Bay of Quinte and Lake Ontario. On a personal level, Tom has five years experience fishing professionally in the Pro Bass and Walleye circuits. For the winter season, Tom has a full line of ice fishing equipment and tackle. Tom and his family will continue to live in Marmora, but look forward to seeing all their friends at the new store.

Percy Boom River Rats to stage Poker Run Sat.

With almost perfect snow conditions prevailing for both snowmobilers and skiers, the Percy Boom River Rats are getting ready to stage their 50-50 Poker Run Saturday, Jan. 13th.

The Snowmobile Club is looking for a full turnout of entries for the run which is to start from the Warkworth Legion parking lot. Registration, at $10 an entry, takes place from 9 to 11 a.m. with the snowmobiles roaring into action after that. OFSC trail permits are required to enter the event. The Legion Ladies Auxiliary will serve a light lunch at the conclusion of the fun competition.

We were at a wildlife reserve in southern India waiting to see the elephants. As I gazed at the aqua blue mountain lake ahead of me, I was suddenly surrounded.

A trace of fear shot through my body. Gone as fast as it came, most of them vanished to leave me gazing up at five Tamil Nadu women draped in full native dress.

Semi-circled, they drew close. Their huge wide smiles wide. Their dark brown eyes, curious, warm and excited, asked who I was and why I was sitting in such an unusual looking chair. I must have been quite a spectacle to them. I faced a critical decision. Do I smile? Do I explain? Do I turn and roll away? Do I force them off with a harsh gesture? I could. How dare they hover!

I didn't ask them to surround me and stare. Regardless of what I chose, I knew that I would be communicating something to these women. Being a spectacle. I had no alternative but to communicate. I remembered that this obligation can be positive if I make it such.

There we all were, staring at each other. We were all spectacles! I smiled and nodded. They smiled, nodded, and a coo rippled through their group. I pointed at one woman's earring and gestured compliments to her. She and her friends giggled. I pointed to my wheelchair and enunciated the "W-H-E-E-L-C-H-A-I-R." Nods and giggles.

I pointed to my legs and said "P-O-L-L-O." In India, people know polio. They understood. Then, as if in a flow of wind or water, we were beyond our unique deformities and with a warm rush of compassion I felt our universal womanhood.

Women communicating. Women with babies. Women with sisters and girlfriends. Women with jewellery. Women on holidays enjoying nature's creations. Women with self-chosen deformities and externally inflicted deformities.

We knew each other well. There was a communal warmth among us during this peaceful cross-cultural moment. No more needed to be said. Our mutual message had grown from fearful and curious to affectionate, positive, and dignified.

As my friends came and rolled me in my wheelchair off toward the lumbering elephants, I remembered one more time that being a natural spectacle can be an embarrassing burden or it may serve as an opportunity and a privilege.

Because of our unique shapes and mannerisms, often adorned with braces, crutches, or wheelchairs, the disabled dramatically command public attention so quickly and so often.

What we communicate once we have that attention is our choice. As I glanced back at the women who were chattering among themselves, I felt a little renewed and a little relieved. After all, we came to see the elephants.

You and the Canada Pension Plan

Can CPP disability recipients do volunteer work or attend school?

Yes, Human Resources Development Canada has recently put in place four measures which will help remove barriers to employment for disability recipients assuming that they have not regained the regular capacity for gainful work.

1. Engaging in volunteer activities will no longer trigger an automatic reassessment. This will not only help encourage the development of useful work skills, it will also help to decrease social isolation.

2. CPP disability recipients who return to work will have their benefits extended for three months to assess their capacity to work. Instead of having CPP abruptly stopped, beneficiaries will be able to test their work skills without fear of immediately losing benefits.

3. Beneficiaries with continuing disabilities will receive CPP payments while attending school or university. This will mean that individuals will be able to acquire alternate skills rather than remaining on passive income support indefinitely.

4. Those with recurring or degenerative disabilities will have their CPP benefits reinstated on a fast-track basis if the disability recurs. Knowing that a financial safety net remains in place should act as a real incentive to try re-entering the workforce.

The Canada Pension Plan pays a monthly pension to people who have contributed to the plan and who are disabled according to CPP rules. To be eligible for the CPP disability benefit, contributors must be between the ages of 18 and 65 and have a disability which is severe and prolonged. A reassessment program exists to ensure that beneficiaries continue to meet the eligibility criteria for receiving the benefits. The four measures mentioned above, put in place by August 31, 1995, are designed to encourage CPP disability beneficiaries to work, retrain, go back to school, and volunteer. In other words, to be self-reliant and to participate in Canadian society.

In addition to disability benefits, the CPP also provides a retirement pension and survivor benefits to its contributors.

For more information on the CPP, contact your local Income Security Program Office. It's listed under Human Resources Development Canada in the blue pages of your telephone book.

Let loaf stand 15 minutes before slicing. Serve as is or with hot cream sauce made from cream of mushroom soup diluted with milk.

Hamilton man fined $5,545 for over limit fish catch

Port Hope--A Hamilton man recently pled guilty to three counts laid under the Ontario Fishery Regulations in Ontario Court here. He was charged for possession of 52 walleye over his limit.

In addition, he was charged for skinning fish so that the species was not readily identifiable and packing fish so that the numbers could not be readily counted. The large overlimit of walleye came from Rice Lake.

Justice of the Peace O. Lent sentenced the Hamilton resident to a total fine of $5,545. In addition to the fine, the court ordered permanent seizure of a fishing rod and reel and the 52 walleye. A court order was also made prohibiting the man from angling for a period of two years.

Conservation Officer Mitch Phinney reminds all anglers that when transporting catch, the fish should be skinned so the species can be identified. Anglers are advised to leave a portion of the skin on all fish fillets. In addition, those who plan to freeze their catch should wrap and freeze each fish separately so they can be readily counted.

Anglers should contact their local office of the Ministry of Natural Resources if they have any questions regarding these regulations.

It's a first for Rebels after back-to-back losses

By Rolly Ethier

Part of the secret of success for the Campbellford Rebels this season in the Empire B Junior Hockey League has been their consistency—an ability to remain slump-proof.

However, for the first time, the Rebels suffered back-to-back defeats on foreign ice last week on successive nights, first dropping a 7-3 verdict to the Ernestown Jets and then losing 6-3 to the Picton Pirates.

It was a malaise that was bound to happen in Ernestown as the Rebels stumbled to their worst performance of the season. Coaches Trevor Timney and Tom Tanner chalked it up as "just one of those games when nothing went right."

Ernestown jumped out to a 3-1 first period lead and never looked back, although the Rebels made if a game for two periods, trailing only 3-2.

However, the Jets turned it up a notch in the final period, putting the decision beyond doubt with a four-goal detonation.

Scott Beaubeen was the ringleader in the Ernestown attack with three goals, singles going to Eric Archambault, Dustin Marshall, Sean Beck and Marcus Spain. Despite the bombardment, Rebel goalie Marc Comeau kept the score down with a 35-stop performance.

Campbellford's first two were scored by Jim Hazelwood and Doug Greenly. Kevin Larmer added the Rebels' only third-period reply.

Against Picton 24 hours later, the Rebels were missing key players Curtis Ducie and Cal Larmer, which put extra pressure on the rest of the lineup. Rebels came out flying in the first period but were turned back by the goaltending heroics of Alex Borankovsky, a recent addition to the Pirates' roster.

Pirates scored first in the second period on a goal by Wes Cory and made it 2-0 when Jeff McMullen got a shot past Comeau. Rebels finally broke the scoring drought with big Anthony Ferguson connecting with help from Ryan White as Campbellford trailed 2-1 heading into the final session.

Rebels started the period without the services of captain Trevor Torrance, one of the team's most dependable scoring threats. Torrance suffered a second period injury.

Then the wheels fell off for the Rebels as Picton scored three soft goals, sending goalie Comeau to the bench. His replacement, John Lalonde, took over and made a couple of saves before fanning on another floater from centre ice. And the die was cast.

Shawn Lapalm sank two of the four Picton goals in the final period, Scott Matthews and Peter Banasick adding singles: The Campbellford snipers were Kevin Larmer and defenceman Dan Roffey.

Only six penalties were called in the relatively peaceful affair, including fighting majors and game misconducts to rugged Greg Stevenson of the Rebels and Jeff Hennessy of the Pirates for a third-period fracas.

Rebs sweep Nananee

A sweep of a home-and-home series against arch-rival Nananee Raiders highlighted the Rebels' play in recent weeks. After turning back the Raiders 5-4 on Campbellford ice, the Rebels later scored a similarly narrow 6-5 victory in Nananee. All in all, the Rebels put together four victories against a pair of losses in action prior to last week's Ernestown setback.

Campbellford started the pre-Christmas schedule with a 6-3 victory over Bobcaygeon and also knocked off the Brighton Buzz 3-1. During that stretch, the Rebels dropped a 6-5 overtime decision to Ernestown and came up short in another single-goal loss, 4-3, to the North Frontenac Flyers.

In the Dec. 22nd home start against Nananee, a goal by Doug Greenly midway through the final period on a play with Anthony Ferguson and Trevor Torrance gave the Rebels their 5-4 victory.

Campbellford got two goals from Curtis Ducie while Jim Hazelwood and Kevin Cork were the other Rebel scorers. All of the Nananee scoring was generated by Paul Butler and Chris Gowan, each with two goals.

Twenty-four minor penalties were called, including 14 on the Rebels. The Raiders took full advantage of the manpower advantage to score three of their four goals. Greg Stevenson and Ryan Moore got into a battle that started with high sticks and ended with both players getting double minors. Shane Findlay and Paul Butler also exchanged the hockey version of season's greetings in another tussle.

Against Brighton on Dec. 23, the Rebels scored all three goals within the first six minutes and then coasted to a 3-1 victory. Marcus Pollock, Mike Harmon and Glen Buttery were the Campbellford goal-getters. Andy Jarrett finally put the Buzz on the scoresheet with just 44 seconds left in the game to spoil goalie Marc Comeau's shutout bid. The score flattered the lowly Brighton crew as Campbellford doubled the shots-on-goal output on their opponents only to be foiled by great goaltending and missed opportunities.

Seniors issues and concerns

Pension reform: what it means to you...

information released by the Royal Canadian Legion:

The Royal Canadian Legion has a message for Seniors. Seniors must not be intimidated by those who spread the myth that they are rich or that they have not paid for the benefits they are receiving. As Canadians you have a contract for certain expectations at age 65. If the government wants to re-negotiate this contract for future generations that's one thing, but don't let them get away with making changes retroactive.

Pension Reform becomes an important issue of the day in view of Federal Finance Minister Paul Martin's statement in the last budget that changes to present pension plans such as OAS and CPP would be announced before the end of 1995. Current seniors and the seniors of tomorrow, will all have contributed through taxation to a standard of living that is the accepted norm in our Canadian environment.

The Legion has long objected to the OAS clawback, introduced by the previous Federal Government, because it taxes people differently on the basis of age. Now the Legion fears the government will add new extensions of OAS clawback to family income rather than individual income. This would impact heavily on seniors, particularly women.

They ignore or forget that this is a contributory retirement plan which was forced on Canadian employees and for which they and their employers paid heavily. The funds were not drawn from the general tax revenue and invested, but merely taken from the individual and mismanaged by successive governments.

The recent and proposed changes make it impossible to plan for the future and will seriously degrade the lives of seniors who have planned their future on the basis of longstanding and paid for support systems that were promised and even imposed on them. Such measures as clawback and changing the rules leave seniors and near seniors without recourse. Such changes constitute a breach of both social contract and good faith. They amount to a discriminatory tax grab imposed on the weak at a time when the declining Veterans' population reaches the age where support is most needed.

It has been shown that current pensions paid out to Canadians are not cost excessive, as well most pension payments received by Canadians are spent, not saved, therefore creating cash flow that support employment and the continual amassing of tax dollars on every item that the pensioners purchase.

Seniors in general, do not object to taxation providing it is fair, reasonable and equal. Seniors on pension income have little means of fighting inflation. The erosion of the age benefit at 65 is a major concern. It is questionable whether cost of living increases in the OAS and CPP plans really cover the actual increased costs of basic food, utilities, property taxes or rent that are occurring in the 1990's. The age benefit at 65 should be increased as time goes on, not decreased or eliminated.

The Legion does not dispute the power of the government to change the rules. We caution however that care must be taken when exercising this power to ensure that it preserves the respect that the government has previously shown towards seniors, including Veterans who fought to maintain society's very existence and many of whom were instrumental in the development of these programs.

Health care - The quality and availability of Medicare in the future must also be a major concern for seniors.

The preservation and universality of service is essential, and will demand strong action by those who have contributed to health programs for so long. The National Advisory Council on Aging, has filed a report, on the request of the Federal Minister of Health for advice in helping to determine priorities in health care.

The question now is: What can be done by seniors, both individual and groups, to ensure fair treatment? It has been stated that the gray power has been defused and the Federal Government is now strong enough to do battle with seniors and survive. We can only hope that the seniors will again take up the challenge and let their politicians know their concerns and what elected persons can expect if the needs, indeed, the rights of seniors are ignored. Those who will suffer most from such an approach will be the seniors of tomorrow.

The very programs that rescued older Canadians from the plight of poverty 20 years ago, and guaranteed health care for all, are on the chopping block. If we allow the axe to fall now, future generations will see suffering in their old age that our generation remembers from childhood.

Seniors now need to become active at all levels to ensure that their voices are heard in no uncertain terms. Individual seniors are encouraged to make their opinions known and support such groups as: One Voice - The Canadian Seniors Network, 1005 - 350 Sparks St., Ottawa, Ont. K1R 7S8 or the Royal Canadian Legion.

*One Voice is a national, nonprofit nonpartisan organization of seniors working together to make Canada the best possible place to grow older. Linking local and provincial groups across the country, the network facilitates information sharing, discussion and research on national issues of concern to an aging population. One Voice regularly appears before Parliamentary committees.

Remember - Canada's seniors paid for their benefits; seniors placed their trust in government to organize and administer these critical provisions for their future; and the impact of changing the rules on the benefits at this late date is not only immoral but could be illegal - if it were done in the private sector.

Now, is the time to act, let's make sure they do hear our voices.

We were at a wildlife reserve in southern India waiting to see the elephants. As I gazed at the aqua blue mountain lake ahead of me, I was suddenly surrounded.

A trace of fear shot through my body. Gone as fast as it came, most of them vanished to leave me gazing up at five Tamil Nadu women draped in full native dress.

Semi-circled, they drew close. Their huge white smiles wide. Their dark brown eyes, curious, warm and excited, asked who I was and why I was sitting in such an unusual looking chair. I must have been quite a spectacle to them. I faced a critical decision. Do I smile? Do I explain? Do I turn and roll away? Do I force them off with a harsh gesture? I could. How dare they hover?

I didn't ask them to surround me and stare. Regardless of what I chose, I knew that I would be communicating something to these women. Being "a spectacle". I had no alternative but to communicate. I remembered that this obligation can be positive if I make it such.

There we all were, staring at each other. We were all spectacles! I smiled and nodded. They smiled, nodded, and a coo rippled through their group. I pointed at one woman's earring and gestured compliments to her. She and her friends giggled. I pointed to my wheelchair and enunciated the "W-H-E-E-L-C-H-A-I-R". Nods and giggles.

I pointed to my legs and said "P-O-L-L-O". In India, people know polo. They understood. Then, as if in a flow of wind or water, we were beyond our unique deformities and with a warm rush of compassion I felt our universal womanhood.

Women communicating. Women with babies. Women with sisters and girlfriends. Women with jewellery. Women on holidays enjoying nature's creations. Women with self-chosen deformities and externally inflicted deformities.

We knew each other well. There was a communal warmth among us during this peaceful cross-cultural moment. No more needed to be said. Our mutual message had grown from fearful and curious to affectionate, positive, and dignified.

As my friends came and rolled me in my wheelchair off toward the lumbering elephants, I remembered one more time that being a natural spectacle can be an embarrassing burden or it may serve as an opportunity and a privilege.

Because of our unique shapes and mannerisms, often adorned with braces, crutches, or wheelchairs, the disabled dramatically command public attention so quickly and so often.

What we communicate once we have that attention is our choice. As I glanced back at the women who were chattering among themselves, I felt a little renewed and a little relieved. After all, we came to see the elephants.

You and the Canada Pension Plan

Can CPP disability recipients do volunteer work or attend school?

Yes, Human Resources Development Canada has recently put in place four measures which will help remove barriers to employment for disability recipients assuming that they have not regained the regular capacity for gainful work.

1. Engaging in volunteer activities will no longer trigger an automatic reassessment. This will not only help encourage the development of useful work skills, it will also help to decrease social isolation.

2. CPP disability recipients who return to work will have their benefits extended for three months to assess their capacity to work. Instead of having CPP abruptly stopped, beneficiaries will be able to test their work skills without fear of immediately losing benefits.

3. Beneficiaries with continuing disabilities will receive CPP payments while attending school or university. This will mean that individuals will be able to acquire alternative skills rather than remaining on passive income support indefinitely.

4. Those with recurring or degenerative disabilities will have their CPP benefits reinstated on a fast-track basis if the disability recurs. Knowing that a financial safety net remains in place should act as a real incentive to try re-entering the workforce.

The Canada Pension Plan pays a monthly pension to people who have contributed to the plan and who are disabled according to CPP rules. To be eligible for the CPP disability benefit, contributors must be between the ages of 18 and 65 and have a disability which is severe and prolonged. A reassessment program exists to ensure that beneficiaries continue to meet the eligibility criteria for re-remembers from childhood.

Seniors now need to be come active at all levels to ensure that their voices are heard in the uncertain terms. Individual seniors are encouraged to make their opinions known and support such groups as: One Voice - The Canadian Seniors Network, 1005 - 350 Sparks St., Ottawa, Ont. K1R 7S8 or the Royal Canadian Legion.

*One Voice is a national, nonprofit nonpartisan organization of seniors working together to make Canada the best possible place to grow older. Linking local and provincial groups across the country, the network facilitates information sharing, discussion and research on national issues of concern to an aging population. One Voice regularly appears before Parliamentary committees.

Remember - Canada's seniors paid for their benefits; seniors placed their trust in government to organize and administer these critical provisions for their future; and the impact of changing the rules on the benefits at this late date is not only immoral but could be illegal, if it were done in the private sector.

Now, is the time to act, let's make sure they do hear our voices.

home early Sat-
ec. 30.

/Madoc OPP say of the home was
d at about 12:25
found two men in room in process
g some electronic equipment. The suspects fled when they were confronted and the man called police with a description of the vehicle and stated he recognized one of the men.

A short time later officers pulled a car over and charged its three occupants.

Charged with break and enter are Brian Calladine, 18, of Bayside, Joe Hardy,
19, and Daniel Wright, 19,
both of Trenton. Hardy appeared in court last week,
while Calladine and Wright will appear on Jan. 26.

Quinte/Madoc OPP have expanded their search for a missing 14-year-old Stirling area youth. The search for Tommy Turriff, also goes by Tommy Hamilton, began late in December after he was last seen in the area on Dec. 11. Turriff called relatives from a pay phone at a McDonald's restaurant in Peterborough, but has not been heard from since, according to police.

Anyone with an information is asked to contact Det./Sgt. John Henry at the Quinte/Madoc detachment.

Quinte/Madoc OPP detachment commander receives promotion

Quinte/Madoc OPP Detachment Commander Jim Dixon will be promoted to Inspector and will assume the interim position Chief of Police for the City of Orillia effective Jan. 15, 1996.

Staff Sgt. Dixon has been in command of Quinte since
Aug. 29, 1994 and the clustered detachment of Quinte/
Madoc since November 1995.

As Jim reflects on his rather short tenure here,
some of the team's accomplishments include: the establishment of Community Policing offices in Thurlow, Sidney Township south and in Madoc Village, zone policing, the establishment of the Sidney Township south volunteer group and the clustering of Quinte and Madoc detachments.

Quinte/Madoc became an Organizational Review test location in Eastern Region of the OPP during this cluster.

It must be noted that part of the team responsible for these positive changes are the citizens and political partners who continue work closely with the police to provide the best level of police service possible.
Without such partnerships
it would be difficult to provide the present level of service.

Jim appreciates the support given to him by staff and community during these times of radical change and financial constraints.

His predecessor has not been named.

Keen curling competition continues

By Peter Kurita

As we near the halfway mark of the curling season, the level of shouting at the rink seems to rise considerably. Each win, each end, even each point, becomes critical, hence the exhortations of "sweep!!!!"

The competition on Monday nights remain keen but Doug Burnside has a slight lead with 16 points, followed by Bob Barker 13; Dave Foote 11; Barry Brown and Tom Smith, 10.

In the men's league, Ken McCulloch leads with 16 points, chased by Harold Douglas with 14, Dave Foote 11, Jim Meiklejohn 10 and Harry Hutcheon, 9.

There is a full slate of 16 teams on Wednesday evenings. This league is no longer a strictly mixed league and an all ladies team is in second place. Dave Foote has the lead with 14 points. Following Dave are Lin Barker, 12; Lyn Forgrave and Bill Osborne, 11; and Ron Watson, 10.

Our Thursday Fun League has a bit of separation with Don Godden way out in front with 14 points.

Dan Dermaux is next with nine, with Harold Douglas, Charlie Godden and Paul Papp at six.

In a recent Farmer's Bonspiel at our club, a team from Stirling went home with the big prize but all participants received a nice prize.

The senior men continue their fun, mixed in with some key successes.

In bonspiels at Lakefield, Casey Charles, Jack Connor, Baxter White and Elton Hutchinson were two-game winners and came second while Earl Nelson, Tom Smith, Bill Osborne and Stan Dyson broke even at 1-1. In Lindsay, with 24 teams competing, Harry Hutcheon, Bill Oliver, Baxter White and Stan Dyson won two games to place second. As for Tom Smith, Jack Connor, Peter Kurita and Elton Hutchinson, it has been reported that they had a good day.

The most prestigious club in the circuit is by far the Peterborough Golf and Curling Club. There, Tom Smith, Peter Kurita, Bob Edgar and Gary Parkhill came home with the CAA Trophy. Jack Connor,

Baxter White, Gerry Menzies and Elton Hutchinson split their two games. Harry Hutcheon, John Bauman, Clint Palmer and Stan Dyson placed third overall in a bonspiel at Bobcaygeon. Tom Smith, Jack Connor, Earl Nelson and Elton Hutchinson split.

The Campbellford Senior Men are holding their own in defence of the Kawartha Cup. When Peterborough Golf and Curling Club visited us in Campbellford, Harry Hutcheon and Casey Charles' rinks won their games but Bob Beck took one on the chin. Our trip to Lakefield was very successful as Bob Bateman and Earl Nelson won their games handsly while Tom Smith earned a tie with his last shot.

Our Wednesday schedule, which will determine who will play in the next half of the Kawartha League, shows Peter Astwood and Bob Beck with 25 points, Peter Kurita with 24, Harry Hutcheon with 22; Jim Jeffs, Bill Simon and John Bauman, all with 21.

Raffle winners

Carly O'Brien was the grand prize winner of the Campbellford and District Association for Community Living Christmas Raffle. She won a trip to Kingston's Ambassador Hotel.

Second prize of a fence and deck building kit went to Brenda Marshall of Hastings. The third prize winner of a dinner at Lois' Place was Nancy Esterbrook of Belleville. M. Tomlinson of Campbellford won the "tired soul" sculpture while Ken Knott, also of Campbellford, took the decorative clock as the fifth prize winner.

Lion's Story

as related
by Lion Art

Once upon a time there lived, in a special place, three cub lions and their parents. Parents Margaret and Richard are away. Uncle Bill and Aunt Barbara are visiting and looking after them. They have their son Frank with them.

"Tell us more about governor? Please Aunt Barbara?" asked cub Heather.

"We were going to talk about 'female humans joining Lions,' replied Uncle Bill.

"No, not yet, please continue about the governor. Is it true that the governor for District A-3, is from the Madoc/Tweed Lions Club?"

"Yes, the humans have selected Richard Cooper as the District Governor. He lives almost midway between Tweed and Madoc. He was the 'founding President of the Tweed/Madoc club when it was first formed five years ago," related Aunt Barbara.

"Wow, he must be important!" exclaimed cub Al.

"To the humans, all Lions are important. They just hold different jobs, that is all. But yes, the Tweed/Madoc Club is proud that Lion Richard is the District Governor," said Uncle Bill.

"How big is his district again?" asked cub Sandi.

"From north to south it is about 150 km and from east to west about 175 km," replied Aunt Barbara.

"That is a big 'hunting ground!'" said cub Frank.

"The human Lions have three kinds of clubs in the area," said Aunt Barbara.

"What are they? I thought that Lions were Lions," exclaimed cub Heather.

"They are my dear, but some Lions clubs have only males. Others have only females and they are known as Lioness Clubs. Other have males and females and that is what the Tweed/Madoc Lions Club is like. Most Lions clubs are now moving to 'mixed' clubs. Then there are the Leo clubs. Leo clubs are for cubs, humans in age from 14-18 years old."

"A club for cubs, Oh I like that!" exclaimed cub Heather.

"Yes, but I bet the adults tell them what to do," said cub Frank.

"No, not entirely. They have to obey the rules of all Lions groups. And Leo clubs are sponsored by..."

"What does sponsored mean?" declared cub Heather.

"It means, that a Lion Club has to arrange for them to begin. But once they start, they 'elect' their own officers and, generally 'run' their own affairs," said

Uncle Bill.

"I think that we lions should have a Leo club just like the human Lions. We cubs need something like that," declared Sandi cub.

"In District A-3 there are 42 Lion Clubs, 28 Lioness clubs and 20 Leo clubs. You see cubs, there are a lot of the human Lions Clubs. Then think, with 12 governors in the province, they have 12 Districts. That is a lot of human Lions," explained Aunt Barbara.

"There are almost as many Lions as there are Lions!" said cub Al in amazement.

"They are growing, at least in District A-3. Governor Richard is very happy about this."

"What was that about the Tweed/Madoc Club having male and female humans as members?" asked cub Frank.

"I'll answer that Bill," said Aunt Barbara. "Once upon a time there were no females in the Lions Clubs. All the females who were interested in Lions work, were members of the Lioness clubs. Now all that is changing. More and more clubs have males and females."

"Are some human males members of Lioness clubs?" asked cub Sandi.

"I believe that is true," said Aunt Barbara.

"Well, what is the difference?" asked cub Heather.

"I'm not sure," replied Aunt Barbara.

"You had better ask human Lion Governor Richard Cooper that question. He will have an answer," replied Uncle Bill.

"Is it better with human males and females in one club?" asked cub Al.

"I think so, little Al, that way the human males and females work together for the 'good' of the community," replied Uncle Bill.

"Do you think that some

day, the governor of A-3 stretching from Maynooth to Cherry Valley and from Bowmanville to the east of Kingston, will have a female governor?"

"Yes I do!" exclaimed Aunt Barbara happily.

"Now go to bed cubs. Tomorrow night your parents will be back. Save your questions for them."

"I would vote for you Aunt Barbara, if you were a human and wanted to be Governor," said cub Heather.

"Good night, cub Heather!" said Aunt Barbara.

Year In Review

ing so much they went out and won convincingly, 8-3.

In semi-final action earlier in the month, the Wildcats continued their successful play-off run sweeping their best-of-five series against Oro to earn a berth in the All-Ontario finals. The Wildcats won all three games convincingly by scores of 15-5, 7-1 and 10-2.

At council, Madoc Village approved a proposal to create a heritage garden on the Russell St. parkette site. The Madoc Garden Club put forth the proposal.

On March 26, Madoc OPP were investigating a fiery five vehicle accident which took the life of one person, on Highway 7, two kilometres east of Madoc.

According to Madoc OPP two vehicles were stopped in the eastbound lanes as the first vehicle was waiting to make a left turn. A third eastbound vehicle rear ended the two, crossed into westbound lane and was struck by two other vehicles. Two cars were damaged by fire, one totally. Local resident Eric Hailstone was involved, but not seriously injured.

April

One of the worst fires in recent memory hit the village on Monday, April 31 in the early morning. The Madoc Village Fire Department, with assistance from the Madoc Township and Marmora Village departments. The fire consumed the Thrift Shop and Niki Graphics, but good work by the firefighters saved the gas station, as well as the restaurant and convenience store.

Madoc Village Chief Roger Snider said that his department was on the scene within four minutes of receiving the call and the fire had gone through the roof at the back of the building. Snider said the specific cause was not determined.

Another vehicle accident occurred on Thursday, April 13 at Highway 7 and 62. According to Madoc OPP an Aerostar mini-van travelling west on Highway 7, ran a red light at Highway 62, striking a Pontiac 6000 travelling north on Highway 62. The driver of the car, William Farrar, 52, of Trenton was taken to Belleville General Hospital and then transferred to Kingston. The driver of the mini-van, Margaret Dacan, 31, of Orleans and her son Matthew, 3, who was a passenger, were taken to Campbellford Memorial Hospital, treated and released.

Local artist Don Fraser of Queensborough received an offer to exhibit his work in France after a chance sighting of his work at a local restaurant.

An exhibition of 52 of Fraser's paintings of places and people in Ontario, was held at the Musée du Nouveau Monde in the western port City of La Rochelle in France.

The exhibition all came about after Docteur Thierry LeFrancis, curator of the museum, happened to see two of Fraser's paintings at Land O'Lakes restaurant, where he stopped for a cup of coffee, while in route to the airport in Ottawa.

Our Bantam Wildcats followed the Atoms, with a 3-1 victory over the Frankford Bantam Huskies. The visitors put the only mark on the board in first period action, but the Bantams roared back with a pair in the period two. Jesse Chapman captured the first goal with an assist by Chris Nickle and Ryan Vaness put away an unassisted shot to take a 2-1 lead before period end. Mike Empey set up Jesse Chapman for the only goal of the third period.

Tamworth provided a competition for our Novice D Wildcats on Dec. 23. The visitors opened the scoring early in period one and held their 1-0 lead into the second. Shawn Trotter tied the match midway through the second, with assists from Brennan Vezina and Chad McLean. Period three belonged to the home team with a pair of goals. Jeff McCann scored with an assist from Bradley Robinson and an unassisted goal by Brandon Dacuk to clinch a 3-1 victory.

Dec. 27 featured the Novice D's in exhibition action with Havelock. The visitors hit the score board first, with barely over a minute left in the first. Shawn Trotter put the tying goal in, with 29 seconds left in period one, with assists from Brennan Vezina and Jonathan McConnell. Havelock scored the only goal of period two to take a 2-1 lead, but ran away with three goals to the Wildcats one in the third. Adrian Taylor scored the third period Madoc goal, with assists from Shawn Trotter and Brennan Vezina, as Havelock took the match 5-2.

Our PeeWees followed the Novice D's with an easy 5-1 victory over Warkworth. Mike Leaver scored a pair of goals and notched up one assist. Chad Trotter, Brandon McLean and Derrick Blackburn each netted singles. T.J. Tomlinson picked up two assists, while singles were credited to Jason Wilson, Derek Thibault, Ryan

Dec. 29 saw plenty of action, with the Novice E's hosting their home tournament. Game 1 saw our Wildcats drop a 5-0 decision to Warkworth. Game 2 was a three goal shut-out for Norwood over Campbellford. The Prince Edward County Kings advanced with a 6-1 win over Tweed and Northminster/St. Anne's Peterborough and Brighton hosted to a 4-3 Northminster win in Game 4. Madoc faced Campbellford in the B-side elimination in Game 5, falling 7-1 to the Colts. Tanner Alford scored the lone Wildcat goal with assists from Dillon Carmen and Mark Redcliffe. A-side elimination saw Norwood fall 3-0 to Warkworth. Game 7 clinched Brighton's spot in the B final with an 8-0 shut-out over Tweed. Prince Edward County won their place in the A final with a tough won 4-2 battle over Northminster. The B Championship went to Brighton with a 9-3 victory over Campbellford and the A Championship was awarded to the Prince Edward County Kings with a three goal shut out over Warkworth.

Friday's action continued with the Atom Wildcats hosting Belleville's 5-13 Hockey Group for an exhibition match. Madoc dominated first period action with four goals to the opposition's two. Josh Leaver, Rob Reynolds, Mark Boyle and Justin Cassidy each scored a first period goal. Assists were credited to Phil Garner, Greg Smith and Rob Reynolds. Belleville scored three goals to the home team's one in period two action to tie the match at 5-5. Jim Meraw passed to David Calvert to score the Wildcat's second period goal. With 17 seconds left in the game, Belleville snuck in the winner, to take the match 6-5.

Our Bantams followed the Atoms with an exhibition match with visiting Prince Edward County. The Kings hit the board with less than a minute gone in period one, but Jason Moloney tied things up for the Wildcats with an assist from Casey Pomorski before period end. The visitors took a 3-1 lead during period two and upped their lead to 4-1 early in the third. The Wildcats battled back in the third, with three goals of their own, to tie the game at 4-4. Casey Pomorski, Jason Moloney and Justin McArthur each scored for the home team, with assists credited to Justin McArthur, Chris Nickle, Ken Forbes and Jeremie Francis.

A big thank you to Craig McCoy, who kept score for all 12 games on the 29th and to Irene Empey, who ran the gate. These two super workers were at the arena from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. and did a fantastic job as usual!

Jan. 3 our Bantams rang in the new year hosting their home tournament featuring from Haliburton, Stirling, Tamworth, North Frontenac, Keene, Peterborough and Norwood. The Wildcats easily took Norwood 6-2 in game one of the tournament. Four unanswered period two goals put the home team in the driver's seat. Chris Nickle opened the scoring with an assist from Ken Forbes. Myles Sills chalked up the next home team goal assisted by Jeremie Francis. Darrell Baumken set up Jeremie Francis for goal three and the fourth was scored by Chris Nickle with an assist from Ken Forbes. Period three provided Chris with his third goal of the game, for a hat trick, assisted by Jesse Chapman. Norwood got a pair on the board before period end, but Justin McArthur got the last work in for the Wildcats.

with an assist from Rodney Wilman.

Game two pitted Keene against Tamworth, with Keene pulling out a 3-2 overtime win.

Game 3 was a 5-2 win for Stirling as North Frontenac forced a shoot-out to end the match.

Game 4 pitted Haliburton with the Peterborough Bantam Selects, with Haliburton taking the match 6-3.

B side elimination saw Tamworth fell 4-1 to the Norwood Hornets. Our own Wildcats were ousted from the A side play, falling 3-1 to Keene. The only Madoc goal was scored by Adam Hagerman with assists from Jason Carlette and Chris Nickle. North Frontenac clinched their spot in the B final with a 2-0 shut-out over Peterborough. Stirling likes shoot-outs and forced Haliburton into one following a 1-1 tie at the end of three regular periods and one overtime. The Blues won the match 5-3 in the shoot-out to advance to the

A finals. North Frontenac took the B Championship with a narrow 2-1 win over Norwood and Stirling shut-out Keene 3-0 to take the A Championship.

Local man ejected in two-vehicle accident

A Queensborough man was ejected from his pick-up in a two-vehicle accident that occurred on Highway 7, just east of the village, last Wednesday afternoon.

southbound on Hart Road when it entered the intersection at Highway 7 at 2 p.m. and struck a tractor-trailer.

Thompson was ejected from his truck and was taken to Belleville General Hospital. He was placed in the intensive care unit, but appeared not to have suffered any broken bones.

The driver of the tractor-trailer, Ronald Freeman of Tichborne, Ontario was not injured.

Firefighters from Madoc Township Fire Department were called to the scene to contain a diesel fuel spill from the transport's fuel tanks.

The highway was closed for several hours.

The investigating officer, OPP Const. Jennifer Patton is asking any eye witnesses of the crash to contact her at (613) 968-6495.

Board to seek private sector bids

by Jeff Wilson

The Centre and South Hastings Waste Management has decided to place the landfill site selection process on the back burner, in order to call for tenders from private companies.

The board approved the call for tenders idea, which was recommended in two resolutions from the executive committee, during a board meeting held last Wednesday afternoon in Batavia.

The committee's first resolution read, "...the Executive Committee based on its review of the responses received from the private sector to the Board's 'request for technical information' is recommending to the Waste Management Board that the Master Plan documentation be completed in a manner that is supported or recommended by the Ministry of Environment and Energy and that an EA (Environmental Assessment) submission be held in abeyance pending a call for tenders from the private sector which tender call shall commence as soon as is reasonably possible'."

The committee's second resolution read, "...the Executive Committee be authorized to prepare a detailed call for tenders from the private sector and to retain such consultants and advisors as the Executive Committee deems necessary to assist it in that regard and in developing the call for tenders to consider the following: the types of waste management services to be tendered; which municipalities (currently having membership on the board) wish to participate in the tender call; whether there are other municipalities (not presently having membership on the board) that wish to join the call for tenders; obtain information with respect to existing contractual commitments regarding waste management services from municipalities wishing to participate in the tender call; examine any changes that may be necessary or advisable to the Board of Management agreement and to consider the advisability of amalgamating the Waste Management Board and the Recycling Board; and such other matters as may arise. Along with the resolutions, the executive committee was also able to determine that the tipping fee range from the private sector is between $68 - $110 a tonne, while a municipally owned landfill would charge $166 a tonne.

After the resolution were passed, Bill Carr of the McKenzie Road Land owners Association wanted a clarification on "as soon as is reasonably possible" warning the board that land owners on and surrounding the McKenzie Road site were not willing to wait for ever.

Board Chairman Tom Deline said that the tendering process would take a while because there were a number of details that had to be dealt with, including those listed in the second resolution. The board's solicitor Wayne Fairbrother echoed those remarks, saying that it was not like tendering for a simple roads project and that the board expected to receive about four or five tenders from private companies.

Carr continued to press the board for a timetable, saying that the members had made the decision to involve the properties for 33 months they could certainly make a decision on a time line for the tendering process.

The board agreed to work towards completing the tendering process in six months.

On the matter of landfill site selection, Fairbrother suggested the board should go ahead with the public consultation of Level 4, Stage 2 document while the contents were still fresh in everyone's head. When asked by public, the cost to go ahead with the public consultation, the response was $10,000. Carr stated: that in his opinion, a public consultation would just produce animosity from landowners, rather than useful information. He added that the board has already been provided with volumes of information from the public, on the site. The board decided to forego the public consultation, but still interested in written comments from the public and will be advertising in local papers encouraging public comment on the document.

Year in Review - 1995

April

At council, Madoc Village passed its 1995 budget with a 0 per cent increase. Clerk/Treasurer Doug Parks said the budget passed by council would allow the village to complete all the projects they want in 1995.

May

After receiving approval from village council the Madoc Garden Club embarked on creating a heritage garden in the village for the enjoyment of the whole community.

The Garden Club along with CHSS Environmental Sciences students began preparing the garden, which included a perennial and shrub beds, terraced rock gardens, and surrounding gravel pathways.

In the May 16 issue the Review it was reported that village resident Jack Martin, along with his wife Irene and Joyce travelled to Holland for V-E Day.

The family went over to Holland and stayed with the Cornelissen family in Apeldoorn as part of the Thank You Canada Program.

Jack participated in the parade that was attended by over 500,000 people. The veterans were provided with a video as a memento. Ivanhoe Cheese celebrated its 125th Anniversary in business on Saturday, May 20.

The original Ivanhoe Cheese company was established in 1870, near the hamlet of Ivanhoe. In the beginning the company specialized in manufacturing of cheddar cheese for the export markets from which it gained a quality reputation.

In 1898, the company expanded with a second operation to keep up with demand in Canada, as well as overseas. The third factory was added in 1927.

At council, Madoc Village proposed changing the numbering system and adding direction of streets on signs to various streets within the municipality in preparation for the implementation of the 9-1-1 Emergency system.

Two streets within the village had the same name, while two others had similar names, but there was no discussion of changing any street names.

A consultant's report on the Madoc landfill stated the site had a life expectancy of approximately 12 years.

The Madoc landfill site is shared between four municipalities including the village, Madoc, Huntingdon and Elzevir and Grimsthorpe Townships.

Board to seek private sector bids

The board also placed a deadline of March 15 on the receipt of written comments.

A discussion also took place about the effects of delaying the landfill selection process, and returning to it, if the tendering process does not work out. Fairbrother stated that in his discussion with EA Advisor Graham Ward, he said the longer the delay the more likelihood the board would have to make changes in the process.

The board also held an election of officers for 1996. Chairman Delane was returned as chair, while Gerry Boyce, Belleville's representative was elected vice chair and Murray Workman, Trenton's representative was returned as secretary.

Snowmobile Races on Skootamatta Lake expected to be better than ever

by: L.J. Jackson

CLOYNE: According to Don Truelove, organizer for the Skootamatta Lake Snowmobile Races at Cloyne, this year is shaping up to be an exceptional year.

This year with 25 classes and improved organization, more competitors are expected and a more enjoyable race. Along with the agreeable weather conditions, it should prove to be an enjoyable day for competitors and spectators alike.

This year, organizers have planned to monitor the races well and separate some of the competition in order to keep the race equitable for everyone who wishes to compete.

Organizers invite everyone to join in the competition and the fun at the beautiful Skootamatta Lake.

LTRCA ready to tackle restructuring challenge

The Lower Trent Region Conservation Authority (LTRCA) has developed a proposal for a re-structured organization for the future. Officials say the new group will be capable of achieving the community's vision of "healthy watersheds with natural areas for all to share" even in the difficult political and economic conditions of the 1990s.

Operating on approximately half of their 1995 budget, the Conservation Authority would provide bare bones maintenance and operation of flood control structures; land management that would keep conservation areas open; and environmental advisory services that will help ensure the health of the watershed.

The cuts in the re-structuring will be deep. The LTRCA will reduce staffing by half, operating with six staff instead of 12. Services will be reduced. The Authority will wind down its activities in municipal plan review, fill construction and alternation to waterway regulations, and landowner advisory services.

LTRCA General Manager Jim Kelleher says the LTRCA vision remains the same—a healthy watershed. The re-structured authority, he says, is a vehicle that can accomplish that, although it may be a smaller vehicle and may take a different road toward that vision.

"It has become obvious that our past structure and our past role as the provincial government's policeman and enforcer of regulations is no longer taking us towards the vision we have for the future of our local watershed," he said last week at a meeting.

"Now the province is backing out of its conservation and environmental role at the watershed level and leaving it up to the municipalities. With our re-structuring proposal we will succeed in creating an agency responsive to local governments and local needs."

Kelleher described the new-look LTRCA as an environmental agency providing information and advice that local municipalities will need in order to make planning decisions. He said the authority will not regulate or enforce but will provide expertise based on the watershed-wide resources information developed in the past 27 years—and that expertise is needed if we are going to have a healthy watershed.

The re-structured LTRCA will be able to provide outdoor recreation on conservation lands and management for natural areas owned by the authority. And, of course, the LTRCA will continue to give the all-important watershed-wide perspective to management of the land and water resources.

Cembal employee receives Medal of Bravery

by Nancy Powers

A simple fishing trip turned into a nightmare for Dave Lucas, of Cembal Publications, after his friend George Wickett crashed through the ice on the Bay of Quinte.

The incident, which has led to Medal of Bravery honours for Dave, took place just over one year ago on Dec. 29, 1994, two miles west of Deseronto.

George, 63, didn't think he would survive the cold water but Dave had different ideas.

"Everything in your mind is telling you to stay away. But, someone is in trouble and I couldn't live with myself if I didn't do something," Dave pointed out.

Using an ice chisel, a leather mitten, and a wooden two-by-four, Dave was able to get his friend out of the hole. The 320-pound George survived the freezing water, but then didn't have the strength to crawl to shore.

(George required 40 stitches to close cuts in his hands from grasping on the chisel). The ice was still too thin for Dave to venture on, but it did sustain George's weight, miraculously. At this point, Dave decided he needed more help.

After trying at six houses, Dave finally obtained a 50-foot rope which he used to pull his friend to safety.

"I threw the rope to George and then pulled for all I was worth. I wouldn't quit until I got him on shore. I still don't know where I got the strength from," explained Dave.

As his friend was whisked-off to the hospital, Dave found himself thirsty enough "to drink the whole Bay of Quinte and 100 per cent drained."

Bravery honoured... Dave Lucas, of Belleville, was informed by The Chancellery that he is one of 25 Canadians to be awarded the Medal of Bravery in year. A presentation ceremony is planned for May.

George's temperature had dropped to 22 degrees, but his size is probably what saved him, commented Dave.

The medal presentation will be held in May, and Dave is now entitled to affix M.B. after his name to denote receiving the bravery award.

He also received the St. John Ambulance Award for his efforts.

More Able Than Disabled

by Barbara Bruck-Pealow

Run for Your Computers: INDIE is coming!

Relax, this is not a new strain of virus. We're talking about INDIE—the Integrated Network of Disability Information and Education.

For people with disabilities, over 4.2 million in Canada alone, INDIE is about to become the on-ramp to the Information Superhighway.

Scheduled for January 1996, INDIE will serve as a gateway to thousands of disability-related sites already up and running on the Internet. Through a searchable directory, INDIE will connect people to the information they want, when they want it.

Whether users are looking for any numbers of disability-related products and services, access to on-line publications, or to participate in public forums on disability issues, INDIE will provide quick and accessible service. In other words, INDIE is about to address the information needs of people with disabilities in Canada and around the world.

INDIE is quick and easy to use—you simply connect to the server, and using the state-of-the-art directory, you're able to directly access the information you need, whether it's around the corner or around the world.

People with disabilities are participating as never before in all aspects of mainstream community life: education, recreation and employment, serve as examples. But, perhaps the greatest facilitator of all has been the new technology. This includes computers, the Internet, and, early in 1996, this will include INDIE.

Superhighway—no one knows what you look like, how quickly you move, or whether you have one of any number of sensory or physical disabilities. Today's technology can equip any one to travel the Net, regardless of ability—or disability.

—INDIE is an acronym for the Integrated Network of Disability Information and Education. It was conceived in Calgary in May, 1995. Approximately 30 organizations, representing virtually all disability interests, got together to discuss emerging trends in electronic communications and what the Internet could mean for Canadians with disabilities and their organizations.

The Calgary group disbanded after meeting for only half a day. Incredibly, after that half day, an administrative structure was developed, a steering committee was struck, and INDIE moved one giant step closer to becoming a reality, while Canada moved one giant step closer to providing the world with one of the most valuable information resources on disability ever compiled.

In a society where people with disabilities will have to shout to make their voices heard, it seems that full, equal and universal access in now most likely to exist in a virtual sense before it emerges on the physical plane. But information is a valuable tool for any social change. And for many people with disabilities, an accessible on-ramp to the Information Superhighway is all they need to help them merge into the fast lane.

On the launch of this important initiative, Patrick Watson, prominent media personality and Chairperson of the Canadian Abilities Foundation, stated: "In a time when equity concerns are giving way to financial pressures and budget deficits, access to information, the most valuable of all commodities, is an invaluable tool in the work to create an inclusive society. For people with disabilities, INDIE is the first step along the road to universal access."

Be Yourself When You Eat

Custom and convention in eating have always been one of the big stumbling blocks in our progress towards better nutrition.

If you want to make the most of yourself and get the best that you can out of life, you'd better not let custom chain you down to everyone else's level! You are likely to be stuck there and never rise above it.

The only value you get in observing most customs is about the same kind of gain you receive when you keep in step with a person with whom you are walking. It's convenient. It may make things a little easier, but it doesn't get you ahead.

After all, you are an individual. Certain food chemicals are particularly good for you even though they may not be needed by someone else. For example, if you have a tendency to put on weight, there's no sense in your eating a piece of cake just because everyone else at the table is doing so. Or, if everybody you know serves a salad at the end of the meal course and you feel that it would be better to begin the meal with a salad, then changing the custom will be to your benefit.

Assert your individuality! Be yourself so far as eating is concerned! Throw off the shackles of custom and convention, and eat what is best for you.

A note from Sue sends along this recipe for Easy Gourmet Soup. She said her grandmother and mother make it all the time. It's really good! This recipe makes about three quarts.

Easy Gourmet Soup

2 lbs. lean stewing meat, cut in bit-sized pieces
2 tsp. margarine
2 large potatoes, peeled and cubed
2 large onions, chopped
2 cups sliced celery
2 cups chopped cabbage
1 (4oz.) can sliced mushrooms, drained
1 can (46 oz.) cocktail vegetable juice (I use V-8)
1 tsp. seasoned Pepper (I use Lowry)

1 tbsp. salt
Brown meat on all sides in margarine in a Dutch oven (I use slow cookers.) Add remaining ingredients, except mushrooms, cover and simmer about four hours. About one-half hour before serving, add drained mushrooms and heat through. Serve with crusty bread or crackers, salad or relish tray, and fruit for dessert. Soup is thick. Add additional vegetable juice, tomato juice or water if you prefer. Enjoy!

Thank you, Sue.

Chow, see you next week.

Feast turns into famine for Rebels against Jets

The scoring feast quickly turned into a famine for the Campbellford Rebels Saturday night on home ice.

After snapping out of their first mini-slump of the Empire B Junior Hockey League campaign Friday night in Lakefield by blasting the Chiefs 9-3, the Rebels couldn't get untracked Saturday night before the home crowd. The result was a 4-1 defeat at the hands of the ever-improving Ernestown Jets.

With goalie Derek Melkman turning aside 34 shots in a stellar performance, Ernestown jumped into a 2-0 lead by early in the second period and then held off the Rebels the rest of the way with superior forechecking and hard-nosed hockey.

Rebels were always within striking distance of the Jets, slicing the visitors' lead to a single goal when Kevin Hyatt scored in the dying seconds of the second period. Scott Beaubien's first period marker and another by Marcus Spain early in the second period staked Ernestown to a two-goal lead.

Trailing 2-1 entering the final period, the Rebels struggled gamely to pull even but Spain counted again on a play with Chad Miller and Beaubien to turn the tide for Ernestown. A power play goal by the Jets' Steve Henderson, who teamed up with Blair Jarman, put the icing on the cake for the visitors.

It was a much different story against the Chiefs. With Doug Greenly breaking loose for three goals and Mike Harmon firing two more, Campbellford overcame a 2-1 first period deficit and went on to dominate the Chiefs.

Goals by Jason Aggett and Gary Toms got the Chiefs off to a promising start. Harmon's goal was the only first period reply for the Rebels.

A three-goal salvo in period two put the Rebels in the driver's seat to stay. Greenly started the uprising. Harmon then broke the 2-1 deadlock and Shane Findlay followed by firing another goal past Lakefield netminder Mike Smith.

Scoring four goals within a space of five minutes in the final period, the Rebels simply skated away from the hometown team in the final session. In addition to Greenly's two goals, the Rebels got singles from big Anthony Ferguson, Kevin Cork and Cal Larmer. Chris Langfield managed Lakefield's lone reply. Cork's goal capped a strong offensive effort by the rookie as he also figured in three other Campbellford goals.

CJOH No-Stars highlight

The feature attraction at this year's Warkworth Winterfest '96 will be the appearance of the Ottawa CJOH No-Stars hockey team in a benefit game against a collection of local minor hockey coaches.

This demonstration of how NOT to play our national winter pastime will provide the grand finale of the winter carnival Saturday night, Jan. 27th at the Percy Arena.

The Warkworth Community Service Club, with the support of several other community organizations, will sponsor this year's celebration of winter on Jan. 26-27.

Major changes in the schedule and the addition of several new events should provide fun and games for children of all ages.

To celebrate the fact that both Warkworth and it's neighbour, Campbellford, will be holding winter carnivals the same weekend, a marathon "Festival Run" between the two towns will kick off activities at 3 p.m. Friday afternoon. Residents of both communities are urged to participate or line the race route to cheer their neighbours on.

With the exception of two Friday evening events—a teen dance at the Town Hall and a Medieval Festival dinner theatre at the Legion Hall—all local Warkworth activities will be confined to Saturday, Jan. 27th.

Saturday's schedule includes hockey and sno-hall tournaments, children's games, mini-golf, cross-country ski races, horse drawn sleigh rides and tin-can curling.

Students buckling down for exams

The girls volleyball teams began the new year by engaging in competitions against Picton and Quinte Christian on Jan. 9. The results were a split with Picton and a win against Quinte Christian for the seniors. The juniors won against Picton, while the midgeets split with Picton and lost to Quinte Christian. The senior girls also played at PCVS on Jan. 11, and participated in a tournament in Lakefield on Jan. 13.

Also on Jan. 9, the CHSS boys basketball teams competed against Centennial. The outcome for the juniors was a disappointing loss, 63-39. The midgeets also were defeated, although only by 17 points.

The CHSS wrestling team participated in a tournament on Jan. 12.

Final exams and course completions will begin on Jan. 18, and continue until Jan. 25. After a few days of what will be a well-deserved relaxation period following the stress of exam week, the second semester will begin Jan. 29.

The Ontario Camping Association is inviting students to consider a job in children's camping this summer. Applicants must be at least 17 years old by July 31, 1996. The address to obtain an application is: OCA Staff Placement Bureau Ontario Camping Association 1810 Avenue Road, Suite 302 Toronto, Ont., M6H 3Z2.

There is also a 24-hour message service available by calling 1-416-781-0525. To show serious commitment from applicants, a $15 service cost per season will be charged. The best jobs will be given to those who apply first. If you are interested, please don't delay.

Congratulations to the following students for their scores on the recent Math League contest: Joe Dafeo, five out of six; Meaghan LeSage and Claire Barden, three out of six, and grade nine student Josh Wright scored two out of six.

Here is an indication of the kind of questions that are put on the test: What is the largest number of (very small) checkers that could be placed on the accompanying 5X5 grid, so there is at most one checker on any small square, there are at most four checkers in any column, in any row, and in any diagonal? This question is compliments of the Math Department at Windsor University.

Grade 12 and OAC art students are currently working on a large size abstraction. There is also an upcoming show that will display their best efforts to be held at CHSS, later in January. These pieces will be included as part of the students' portfolios for university and college entrance.

Quinte Crime Stoppers

Quinte Crime Stoppers is seeking your help in solving a break, enter and theft that occurred at a residence located on Lot 3, Concession 2, RR3 Marmoraville.

Madoc OPP report that on Dec. 15, between the hours of 8 a.m. and 4 p.m., thieves forced open the side door to gain entry of the home. Once inside they searched through the rooms on the main floor and left with a number of wrapped Christmas presents and household items, some of which are as follows:

a JVC, 24" television, a

Sears VCR, an antique red cherry wood telephone, and an antique cathedral style radio, damages and losses as a result of this incident are estimated at more than $1,500.

If you have any information regarding this break, enter and theft call Crime Stoppers. You may be entitled to a cash reward if your tip leads to an arrest. Callers will not be required to reveal their identity nor testify in court, because Crime Stoppers guarantees anonymity and no call display.

Eldorado Gold Cup

The Eldorado Cup sled dog race, the first race of the Ontario Federation of Sledding Sports National Quad Crown of 1996, was held last Saturday, starting at the Madoc Township garage. (In photo) Ron Lott was driving a sled with dogs owned by Tim McEwen. There were 22 participants in the race. Watch next week's Review for the race results.

I.O.O.F. hold reception and banquet

by Robert Wilson

On the evening of Jan. 17 District No. 45 of the Independent Order of Oddfellows held a reception and banquet in honor of the visit of Bro. David Savage, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Ontario. Bro. Ed Stevenson as Deputy Grand Master of the District was the host, and Chairman for the evening at the Town and Country Restaurant in Madoc.

Bros. Ralph Underhill and Hugh Johnston provided entertainment during the meal as well as during the evening's program. Sister Vera Woodbeck brought greetings from District No. 4 of the Rebekah Assembly of Ontario.

Bro. Bob Courtney of Tweed presented the Madoc Lodge with the Dr. S.R. Beatty shield of obtaining the greatest number of new members in the district during the past year. Bro. Bob Cosby of Stirling Lodge presented Bro. Ed Stevenson with the John Bristol shield for being the member responsible for the greatest number of those new members.

The Grand Master during his address reminded his audience of the support all Odd Fellows lodges give to research in cancer, leukemia, eye and heart and stroke diseases. Ontario was the largest donor to the Cancer Society of all the Odd Fellow jurisdictions in the country. He also reminded us that it was the Odd Fellows who started the first home for the elderly on this continent and that it was the Odd Fellows who started, and still support, Camp Trillium.

A highlight of the evening was the presentation of long service jewels. Receiving 50-year jewels were Bros. Thos. Ross, Geo. Devolin and Lin Empey. Jewels for 25-years service went to Bros. Murray Lockwood and Garry Reid. The audience regretted that Bro. Jim Miller was unable to be present to receive his 60-year jewel. A special presentation was made to Bros. Don and Blaine Thompson of Campbellford Lodge in recognition of their efforts on the Humanitarian committee. Our congratulations go to all these worthy members.

Madoc Village Reeve Tom Deline gave a short address on the need for a home in Centre Hastings similar to those in Belleville and Bancroft.

Heart of Hastings Hospice, available to those in need

Hospice/Palliative Care is provided in Madoc, Marmora, Stirling and Tweed by trained volunteers. The Heart of Hastings Hospice functions under a 16 member board. The Hospice has been performing care and support in Madoc, Marmora and Tweed for five years and began in the Stirling area in June 1995.

The Heart of Hastings Hospice is a group of caring people. People that do not want anyone living with the life threatening illness of cancer to go without the very best support and care possible. The Hospice realizes family and friends want to care for their family member if at all possible, but if you are unsure of how to deal with problems, if you are tired, if you need to leave the home for an appointment or errands, the Hospice wants you to know you can get support, or time out from the Heart of Hastings Hospice. If you need a visitor, someone to pick up medication or groceries, etc., someone to play cards with... a supporter, helper or friend, just call.

There is no fee for our support and care. The volunteers with Hospice are people that want to help somehow within their community and have chosen people with illness.

The Hospice is in the home for the ill person and the family as one unit and will work with you to help whatever hours are necessary in your situation.

The Hospice have contact people in each community. In Madoc call Delores McCoy, RN. In Marmora call Bev Maloney, RN. In Stirling, Betty Galloway, RN and in Tweed call Doris Bush, RN.

To call the Heart of Hastings Hospice dial 1-800-345-7814 or (613) 478-1884. If you do leave a message your call will be returned as soon as possible.

We accept telephone calls or requests for assistance from anyone - ill person, family, doctor, nurses, community resource centre, Cancer Society, home care ministers or friends. Please call us.

Seniors apartment sale rumor dispelled

by Jeff Wilson

A rumor that the province was going to sell the Mapleview Chateau seniors' apartments was dispelled by a local MPP's office last Friday.

Doug Brewer, executive assistant to Hastings Peterborough MPP Harry Danford said that the rumor the province was putting the apartments, located on Wellington Street, up for sale was not true.

In an interview, Brewer said Danford's office had also heard the rumor from different areas before getting confirmation that the apartments were not for sale. Brewer said he had no idea where the rumor originated.

Danford's office first contacted the Ministry of Municipal Affairs, and was told it would have to be determined if the building was owned by the Ontario Housing Authority. A subsequent call to the Ontario Housing Authority, in Toronto, determined that it was indeed owned by the Authority. In a discussion with Authority General Manager of Administration Peter Shaft, Brewer was told there were no plans to sell the building at this time or in the near future.

The Ministry of Municipal Affairs doesn't plan to take any action with Ontario Housing Authority projects for at least 18 months, but Brewer added that the Madoc building is not on the action list.

Cloyne's 2nd. Annual Snowarama this Saturday

by: L.J. Jackson
CLOYNE: Since 1922, the Easter Seal Society has been helping make the dreams of physically disabled children come true. The first Snowarama was held in Bradford, Ontario in 1975. The late Whipper Billy Watson championed Snowarama and was the leading force behind its initial success.

The Easter Seal Society has partnered with the Ontario Federation of Snowmobile Clubs (OFSC), a unified voice for recreational snowmobilers, to help provide essential support for Snowarama.

The trails have been groomed and are ready in Mazinaw Country for upcoming event beginning its journey at the Barrie Township Hall at Cloyne. Snowarama continues to be successful because it is driven by volunteers. About 35 people at the Rotary Club of Napanee are involved with organizing the approaching Snowarama at Cloyne. Preparations for the ride for Easter Seals have been combined effort with the trails kept groomed and ready. Last week's rain made more work for the groomers, but they were out there as always prepared to make the Mazinaw trails the best anywhere. Members of the Mazinaw Powerline Snowmobile Club with their organizers John and Eleanor Nowell, Wayne Wagner, Richard and Rhonda McCall and Rob Nowell are determined to provide a fun and enjoyable ride.

The 50 km. or 100 km. loop, beginning at Cloyne, will be determined basically by weather conditions. Mother Nature always providing a good time in this area for snowmobilers. It's a Ride in Mazinaw Country, says organizer John Nowell, but you don't have to be a snowmobiler to have some fun.

"Even if you don't snowmobile, you can still participate by getting sponsors and pledges. It's a good feeling to help the Easter Seal children. Someone else can ride for you," Nowell explains that the focus is on the children.

Because no one knows until the day, how many will register for the Snowarama, it is an anticipation, topped only by the family day event. After the ride on the magnificent trails in Mazinaw Country a dance for participants, (whether they have rode the trails or not) will be held at the Glencannon Resort.

"Snowmobilers appreciate the Mazinaw Trails and come from all over in support of the Easter Seal Children. Considering it was our first year last year and the lack of snowfall, we had a tremendously successful event," related Wayne Wagner, one of the organizers of the event. In further conversation Wayne expressed that the prospects for this year's Snowarama at Cloyne will be in all probability even more impressive.

Sponsor sheets can be picked up at any local businesses as well as in many other areas such as Belleville and Napanee.

For further information contact John Nowell at 1 613 336-2547.

Snowmobile drags rescheduled for this Saturday

CLOYNE: The snowmobile drags on Skootamatta Lake at Cloyne have been rescheduled for this Saturday, January 27th. Registration at 10 a.m.

Due to the unpredictable weather conditions, the races, previously planned for last Saturday had to be changed, reported organizers of the event.

"Let's not throw baby out with bath water:" cautions LTRCA chairman about cuts

In the next two months, 17 municipal governments will decide the future of the Lower Trent Region Conservation Authority (LTRCA).

With adequate municipal funding, the LTRCA can be restructured. If municipalities do not provide sufficient funds, the LTRCA and many of the gains made over the past 27 years in conservation and environmental protection will be at risk.

LTRCA chairman Eric Summers says it's obvious that all conservation authorities in Ontario, including the LTRCA, must change. He said the provincial government has made it clear "but there's a real danger that we will throw the baby out with the bath water. We need conservation and environmental services at the local level. If we let our environment decline again, we'll face the cost of remediation in the future and we already know it's less expensive to prevent environmental damage than to clean up after wards."

At a meeting held on Jan. 11th, the LTRCA presented information on provincial funding cuts and asked municipal politicians and supporters for input. Summers said: "We need to reposition and re-think our approach to watershed resource management."

Although provisions in the proposed Omnibus Bill will allow municipalities to abolish conservation authorities, some believe this may not be the right time to consider such action.

Lionel Bourgeois, community development coordinator of Trentval Development Corporation, pointed out at the meeting that municipalities are expected to amalgamate in 1996 and 1997.

Municipalities in the watershed are already discussing merging municipal services, including policing and fire protection. Over the next few months, the need for a regional conservation and environmental agency may be clearer.

"Why would we destroy organizations that provide area-wide services now only to re-build them later at a higher startup cost?" asked Bourgeois.

LTRCA general manager Jim Kelleher said: "The public has much to lose and municipal governments have little to gain in dismantling the LTRCA."

"The public expects someone to be taking care of the Trent River and the watershed. Could you imagine what the reaction would be if a problem developed within the watershed and people had no assurance that someone would take local responsibility for sorting it out?"

"If lands and buildings by the LTRCA are sold, municipalities won't get large amounts of windfall profits - the province and other organizations have helped pay for the purchase of the assets and there will be a lineup of organizations who want a share of the proceeds from the sale. The public would not want to lose access to conservation and outdoor recreation lands like Goodrich Loomis, Murray Marsh and the Trenton Greenbelt. They are important for people across the entire watershed."

Playoff action: It's playoff time around the district with team's squaring off in a variety of OMHA playoff series. One of the best local rivalries pits the Norwood bantam Hornets against the Havelock Hawks. In last week's round robin opener Norwood dropped the playoffs 4-1.

Kick-Off Toward a New Venture Van

A cheque for $4,000 from the More Able Than Disabled group kicked off a fund raising drive to buy a new venture van which provides transportation for people who need it. The cheques were proceeds from Nevada ticket sales at the Players Lounge in Campbellford. The goal is $30,000 for the new specially equipped van. The current van now has over 240,400 kilometres on it.

Last November letters were mailed to service clubs asking for donations.

To date, the committee has received $1,000 with more to come. But we still need to raise $30,000.

Did you know?

Cities across Ontario are responding to the provincial cuts to transportation subsidies last August when the use of specialized transit services for disabled people who are ambulatory was eliminated. It resulted in suspending weekend service or causing fares to increase significantly than rates charged for the conventional transit system.

Thousands of people with disabilities, who do not use wheelchairs or who are on fixed incomes, are being affected. Many will be left with no means to get to work or medical appointments.

Barbara's notes: What do you think of it. Well, we're not going to let it happen around here. Because we know that with your help, support, and love, we are going to make it. We can look after our own interests. We have to, no one else is going to do it.

Lured to make this when I was just married back in the fifties. I served it with salad and topped it off with jello and ice cream.

Rebels reeling after two weekend setbacks

With the playoffs looming in just a few weeks it is an inappropriate time for any team with championship aspirations to suddenly go into a slump.

That's the precarious situation the Campbellford Rebels find themselves in after suffering two consecutive home ice setbacks on the weekend to interlocking opponents.

On Saturday night it was revenge time for the Lakeland Chiefs as they nosed out the sagging Rebels 5-4. This was a complete reversal of the embarrassing 9-3 defeat the Chiefs took in Lakeland the last time the teams met.

Then Sunday night, the Rebels came out flat again, got behind 5-0 after one period and were never quite able to recover as they absorbed a 7-4 loss at the hands of the Little Britain Merchants.

Rebels, who demitted the first half of the schedule, trailed 2-0 in the first five minutes against Little Britain but came back with a vengeance, scoring twice to trail 5-2 heading into the final 20 minutes. Continuing to press, Rebels were rewarded as Jim Hazelwood made it 5-3 on a nice three-way passing play with Shane Findlay and Kevin Larmer. Then the Rebels shaved their opponent's margin to a single goal when Findlay singled in another goal with help from Kevin Larmer and Carl Fernandez.

That was as close as the Campbellford boys would come, however, as Little Britain's Jeff Scott and Brad Cann scored to put the verdict beyond reach. Jim Teel and Corby Purdy were the offensive sparkplugs for the Merchants, scoring two goals each.

Defencemen scored the first two Rebel goals as rookie Kevin Cork and Curtis Ducie hit the target. On Saturday night it was a case of simply too little too late for the Rebels after the Chiefs opened a 4-2 first period lead. Kevin Cork, Kevin Larmer, Carl Fernandez and Shane Findlay were the Rebel goal-getters.

A goal by Gary Toms with less than two minutes remaining snapped a 4-4 deadlock and gave Lakeland the hard-fought verdict. Jason Aggett was a two-goal producer for the Chiefs while Mike Williams and Kraig Nobles had singles. Three of the Lakeland goals came on power play opportunities.

Injury problems continue to plague the Rebels. Captain Trevor Torrance's banged-up shoulder is now reported to be worse than originally expected and he is not expected to be back until the playoffs. Newcomer Jason Elson, playing his first game as a Rebel, suffered a separated shoulder and his return is uncertain.

However, the team management hopes the Rebels will recover their old form in next Saturday night's game against the Uxbridge Bruins.

Senior Knights slam dunk Trinity 55-44

By Glenda Saltern

Norwood - Last Monday there was a lot of action on the Norwood High basketball court when the senior Knights hosted Trinity College. And after going all week with no games and only two practices the previous week, the Knights were more than ready to play.

And play they did! The Knights played an excellent game, especially when it came to rebounding and defence. Trall paid off in the end, though, when the scoreboard read 55-44 for Norwood.

Norwood coach Phil Smith was very proud of his team especially when the Trinity coach told how impressed he was with the Norwood players.

"It was the best game this year," coach Smith said.

Trinity is one of the best teams in the league and they came to Norwood expecting to win; but instead they had to play hard to keep up with the Knights and in the end they went home with a very disappointing loss.

Some of the top scorers for Norwood were Jeff Menzies with 21 pts while Dave Donald, Bob Zavitz, George Edwards and Jason Meyers all had eight pts.

Good work, guys!

Hawks nip Hornets with late-game rally

Norwood - Three late goals helped the Havelock Hawks nip the Norwood pee wee Hornets 5-3 in OMHA action Friday night.

Hawks 5, Hornets 3

Friday's game had all the hallmarks of a playoff match -- stellar goaltending, end-to-end action and tough defence -- and for much of the contest it looked like Norwood's feisty and much-improved squad would eke out an important win.

The first period ended in a scoreless tie thanks to strong goaltending by Norwood's Jamie Pulfer and the Hawks Brent Forsyth.

Norwood got on the board three minutes into the second frame crafty Ryan Kimball found his way to the corner of the Hawks net to tap in a Jesse Wynne rebound.

Havelock evened things up at the 5:36 mark after David Anderson corralled a rebound on a blue line bullet and tucked it in the corner of the net. Earning assists were Jason Lewis and Joel Barr.

The Hornets moved ahead shortly afterwards then moved in front 3-1 on a superb breakaway goal by Andrew Keeping. Keeping burst over the blue line after taking a pass from Victor McHady then slipped the puck past Forsyth.

Barr narrowed the gap with a goal at the 2:17 mark. Pulfer made the initial stop on the hard drive but the puck squirted out of his glove and over the goal line.

The Hornets hung tough for most of the third period until Havelock capitalized on a Norwood penalty. Tyler Spooner backhanded a Andy McCutcheon rebound into the net to make it 3-3.

The Hawks went ahead with 1:59 to play when Anderson broke in front of Pulfer to score. They iced the come-from-behind victory with an empty net goal by Lindsey Bowman.

Hornet notes: Hats off to novice Hornet Alex Graham who calmly pocketed $72 in the shot-for-the-pot bonanza during the intermissions break. The novices were coming off a tremendously entertaining 0-0 tie against Warkworth.

A Picture-Perfect Wedding Day Begins With Proper Planning

Wedding Preparations Don't Have to Be Stressful

When it comes to their wedding, the bride and groom want everything to be perfect. From the ceremony to the reception, they consider all the details, and while this makes for a beautiful wedding day, it also causes months, and maybe even years, of stress.

The best way for a couple to remain calm while planning the big day is to get organized. By making a list of things they need to do, they can allot time in their schedules for each task - and they can feel a sense of accomplishment and relief each time they cross something off the list.

This basic checklist can get them started on their way to a beautiful wedding day.

- Set the date - As soon as possible after getting engaged, the couple should select a wedding date and decide on the type of wedding they would like to have. From a traditional ceremony in a church to a surprise wedding, where guests are invited to a "party" that turns out to be a wedding, couples are personalizing the event and planning weddings that reflect their lifestyles and interests.

- Reserve a location - The couple should reserve the church or location of the ceremony soon after setting the date to ensure they can get married on the day they want. Then, they need to reserve a reception location. Party-houses and halls specialize in party business and feature catering directors who will assist a couple in planning their dream wedding. Hotel receptions are becoming increasingly popular, and hotels also have catering directors on staff. Independent caterers are a good choice for home weddings or garden receptions.

- Select a photographer - Every photographer has a different style and a different way of covering weddings. The couple should choose one who will accommodate their wishes, like taking the types and number of shots they want, attending both the ceremony and reception, and offering the album design they would like. The most important quality of a photographer is his or her personality. The couple will be spending an entire day with this person, so they should choose someone who will make them feel comfortable.

- Book reception entertainment - The couple should select a disc jockey or band that will cater to everyone at the reception - both the younger and older generations. The musical selections should be diverse, and requests from the guests should be taken.

• Arrange wedding transportation

Whether it's a Rolls Royce, stretch limo, horse and buggy, or double-decker bus, the couple should plan for transportation to and from the ceremony and to the reception for themselves and their attendants. They should make reservations early, especially if they want a white car.

• Order dresses - Shopping for a wedding

dress, headpiece and bridesmaid dresses is one of the most fun parts of the planning for the future bride. She should choose a wedding dress that reflects her style and personality - and makes her look beautiful. When considering dresses for her attendants, the bride-to-be should opt for a style that complements her dress, as well as the girls in her party.

• Choose a florist - Flowers can add an elegant touch to the wedding day, and every florist has a unique style. The couple should select one whose arrangements they like and who offers them helpful, creative ideas about bouquets, corsages and centerpieces.

- Decide on a bakery - The couple should select a bakery based on the flavor of the cakes baked there and the look of previous work. They should ask for a taste of the different types of cake offered, and they should see if the bakery will be able to create the design that they want.

• Select formal wear

Whether it's a basic tuxedo or a top hat and tail coat, formal wear completes the look of the wedding party. The couple should select a formal-wear provider who offers the style they want.

has a variety of sizes available to fit all of the men standing up, and offers a large selection of bow ties and cummerbunds or vests.

- Order invitations - Invitations come in many different styles, so the bride and groom will have a number of books to look through. They should decide on a style that best suits their wedding, based on its formality, the time of day and the wedding colors. The stationery professional can help them with this decision.

With these important decisions made, the future bride and groom only have a few things left to do, like selecting favors, writing a wedding bulletin and buying thank-you gifts for their attendants. They're well on their way to the wedding of their dreams.

Navy is all the rage in men's formal wear this spring. This single-breasted tail coat features a satin double shawl lapel and looks smashing over the matching navy vest with satin trim. This look is fresh and of-the-moment, as the blue tuxedo adds a subtle, tasteful dash of color to an otherwise black-and-white world of formal wear.

Bridal Makeup to Last Beyond the Moment

After you've invested so much to make your wedding day unforgettable, the last thing you want is a makeup mishap!

To avoid any potential of a makeup disaster, treat yourself to a consultation. Many salons offer makeup consultations and even lessons for a nominal fee.

That offer a makeover service and lessons completely free of charge. Best of all, the makeup specialist actually will listen to your needs and give you what you want. You won't have to worry about leaving the shop looking like a victim of the latest fad or like Tammy-Faye's twin sister!

The following list of makeup tricks was created by makeup specialists to ensure that you are a vision of loveliness on your special day.

Start with a clean, moisturized face. Go for the natural look. Many people mistake the term "natural look" for no makeup at all, but it actually means that you wear basic shades of makeup that maximally enhance your best features.

The secret to natural-looking makeup is wearing a foundation and concealer that exactly matches your skin. Always test a shade on your forehead or jawline and not on the back of your hand. If you can't see it, then you've got the right one. Make sure that your makeup is blended into your neck, so there is no line of demarcation. If one appears, smooth it out with a sponge, then buff.

After applying foundation and concealer, use a cotton puff to touch translucent powder all over the face to set the foundation and to absorb excess oils.

Keep the eyes looking "natural." Start off with the brows: Use a bit of Eyebrow Makeup to fill in wherever the hair growth is sparse. Never reshape a brow with color, or you might end up looking really artificial.

Apply a light shade of eye shadow on the area between your brows and your upper lashes, then apply a darker shade along the upper lash line to enlarge and emphasize the eye shape.

For added definition, apply a smudge of brown/black eye liner between the lower lashes. Finish off with two coats of black/brown mascara.

When blush is properly applied, you barely notice it, yet it makes your eyes brighter and your whole face come alive. Using a good brush is the key to a picture-perfect application. Once you've used a good brush, you'll never want to be without it. The ideal brush is round, so its sides can be used to blend the blush. Choosing the right color is most important. For most skin tones, nutmeg and rose shades are great. So if you can't decide, choose one of these.

Now that you selected the right brush and shade, the only concern is to get it on the right part of your face. Apply your blusher to your brush (if you've put too much, swish it through a bit of translucent powder), put the brush right on the center of your cheek, then lightly stroke outward toward the center of the ear, covering the entire cheekbone area. Take a look in the mirror: If your attention goes straight to your cheeks, you have too much on. Your eyes should always be the focus. A little translucent powder can correct this problem.

To get the appearance of fuller, more sensuous lips, line the lips with a pencil to your natural lip color. With your mouth open, start lining at the cupid's bow as close as possible to your natural lip line. Close mouth to check the shape.

The goal is not to create a new you, but simply to find a look that is unmistakably you!

ENSURE THAT YOU are a vision of loveliness on your wedding day with this timeless and classical bridal look.

How to Capture ALL Your Wedding Memories

(MPS) - More than 2.5 million couples get married each year. And, one of the most frequently heard complaints by all of them is that things happened so quickly they hardly even remember their own wedding! That's why photography is so important.

Next to the bride and groom, the most important person at the wedding is often the photographer. To help ensure wedding memories are recorded for years to come, we offer the following tips:

Going to the chapel. Some of the best memories happen even before "the big day," for example, the bride trying on veils, the flower girl rehearsing her part, the groom at his bachelor party. To make sure these spontaneous moments are recorded, delegate attendants as official record keepers.

Bridal shower blues - Sure, the bridal shower is fun, but what's a girl to do when it's time to send out thank-you notes and she can't remember which guest gave which crystal wine decanter? As each gift is opened, have the maid of honor snap a shot of the bride with the gift and the guest who gave it to her. The benefits: There's no gift confusion, it's easier than writing everything down, and with a quick note scrawled on the back, the photos serve as personal thank-you cards.

Get the guests involved. One of today's biggest wedding trends is for brides to place one-time-use cameras on tables, inviting guests to capture candid moments.

Keep your photos organized. It's always important to keep your photos organized and in a safe place, but people often forget about storing their negatives. Then, when they want to make reprints, the process is a nightmare!

The honeymoon doesn't have to end. Make your wedding day live on by using photos creatively. There are dozens of great ways to use the pictures guests take with one-time-use cameras. Considering these candid shots as thank-you notes, for scrapbooks, home decorating, etc.

Display your photos for a lifetime of memories. Don't settle for only one photo album; frame your wedding photos, so they can be viewed at all times. Also, friends and family will love receiving framed enlargements of special wedding photos that include them.

Platinum Wedding Rings Symbolize The Beauty and Strength of Your Union

The wearing of a wedding band expresses how two people feel about each other without saying a word. Today, many couples are saying "I love you forever" with platinum.

According to a recent survey conducted by the national magazine Modern Bride, three times as many brides are considering platinum wedding rings.

What is platinum's allure? Many people are choosing platinum rings because the bride's mother or grandmother wore platinum jewelry, while others are starting their own family traditions by buying platinum wedding bands.

Platinum is as traditional as weddings themselves. Its radiance and color beautifully showcase a diamond's natural sparkle, and its rarity adds to its appeal. In fact, platinum is the rarest metal on earth, and wearing this precious metal on your finger exemplifies the uniqueness and value of your lasting and groom. That is why so many young couples today are choosing platinum. Because of platinum's density and weight, it is uniquely desirable for men's wedding bands.

Homemade Accessories For a Perfect Day

The wedding day is one of the most important days in a woman's life. She wants everything, from her gown to the flowers to the food served at the reception, to be perfect. Most of all, she wants her memories of the big day to be special.

Personal, handmade bridal accessories can help make those memories special. A lace-trimmed ring pillow, made out of the same fabric as the bridal gown, contains details that are hard to find in a store-bought pillow.

The surge in handmade bridal-shower and wedding accessories is due to both the personal satisfaction one gets from crafting, especially for a meaningful event, as well as a wide range of specialty products now found at craft stores.

The following ring pillow will add a personal touch to the wedding day. After the ceremony, it can be used as a decoration in the bedroom or kept in a safe place for use in the next family wedding.

RING PILLOW

• 3/4 yard of 24-inch-wide silk voile for pillow back and front

MAKE WEDDING-DAY memories special with a handmade ring pillow made from the same fabric as the wedding gown.

1 11-inch square of silk satin for front lining

1 10-inch square knife-edge pillow form 21/2 yards of 21/2-inch-wide lace for ruffle

11/4 yards satin piping

1 10-inch zipper or 10-inch Velcro strip

1 yard of 1/4-inch-wide satin ribbon

11/4 yards of 21/4-inch-wide insertion lace

Directions: (1/2-inch seams allowed)

1. Cutting: From voile, cut an 11-inch square pillow front and two 6-inch-by-11-inch pillow backs.

2. Pillow Front: Symmetrically space two vertical and two horizontal 11-inch lengths of insertion lace on the voile pillow front; pin and edgestitch. With small, sharp scissors, cut away the voile behind the lace. Place the right side of the satin square against the wrong side of the pillow front, with edges even. Baste the edges.

3. Piping: Pin the piping 1/2 inch from the edges of the pillow front, with right sides together and raw edges outward, clipping to the piping seam at each corner. Stitch over the piping seam.

4. Ruffle: Seam the short ends of the ruffle lace together; press seam open. Fold the resulting loop with the seam at one end, and mark the opposite fold. Fold the loop in half again, and mark those two folds. Stitch a gathering row at each quarter (mark to mark) of the loop. Pin the lace to the pillow front with the seam or quarter mark at each corner; have right sides together and sides even. Pull up gathers to fit pillow. Stitch along the piping seam.

5. Pillow Back: With right sides facing, pin the two back pieces together along an 11-inch edge. Stitch a 1/2-inch-long seam at each end. Press the seams, and insert a zipper or Velcro strip between them. Open the zipper part way.

6. Assembly: Pushing lace toward the center, pin pillow front to pillow back, with right sides together and edges even. Seam along the previous stitching. Turn the case right side out through the zipper opening.

7. Ring Ribbons: Cut two 8-inch lengths of ribbon. Pin the center of each to the pillow, and fasten in place with small stitches.

8. Insert the pillow form, and close the zipper. Tie a ribbon around each ring.

Simple Solutions Can Help Reduce Wedding Expenses

Having a wedding has become extremely expensive. It is difficult for the bridal couple to overcome the high cost of getting married in the '90s. Once upon a time, it was just assumed that the bride's family was to pay for "everything" (including the ceremony and reception), while the groom's family paid for the rehearsal dinner. These days, the division of expenses has changed greatly. No longer are the parents of the couple required to pay for anything. The bridal couple pays for most of the cost themselves, and the parents contribute whatever they can.

Suzanne Kresse, author of "Secrets of Successful Brides" (St. Martin's), suggests that, when planning a budget, couples should allow an additional 25 percent more money for extras that they have yet to come across.

Some of these "unexpected extras" include tips, hairdresser fees, wedding favors, meals for the band and photographer during the reception, and presents exchanged between the groom and bride.

To help keep costs down, Kresse offers some simple ways to save on wedding expenses:

Before booking a reception hall, ordering flowers and buying gowns, the couple must create a budget. First, they must decide how much they are planning to spend and, then, how the expenses are going to be divided.

• Trim the guest list - shaving off five to 10 names can save a lot of money.

• Consider having fewer attendants in your bridal party.

• Make your honeymoon plans when special air-fare programs are advertised.

Bridal Dreams Come True With Cultured Pearl Jewelry

The planning of a wedding begins in a young girl's dreams. She pictures everything in great detail, from the gown she'll wear to the jewelry adorning her on that magical day.

For centuries, cultured pearls have been treasured by brides everywhere. As a symbol of love and embodying elegance, it's no wonder that pearls are the No. 1 jewelry choice of today's bride.

When choosing pearls for her wedding day, a bride should know that the style of her gown suggests the type of pearls to buy.

A gown with an open or sweetheart neckline looks best with a 16-inch choker or 20-inch princess-length necklace, both of which gracefully accent the neck and shoulder areas. High-collared and V-neck styles are complemented by long strands of pearls, either a 24-inch matinee-length or 32-inch opera-length necklace.

As far as pearl color is concerned, women with light hair and fair complexions tend to look best in cultured pearls with a slight rose tint. Creamy white or slightly golden pearls go well against dark hair and skin tones.

As cultured pearls are grown by oysters in nature, they are seldom, if ever, perfectly alike. Every pearl is different. However, when selecting a strand of pearls, it is important to keep several quality points in mind to ensure getting the best value for the dollar.

The most important factor, in terms of quality, is the luster of the pearl. Luster is a combination of deep inner glow and bright surface shine. The pearl should be clear enough to reflect the images of objects near it. Avoid pearls that are dull and lifeless.

An equally important factor is the surface of the pearl. It should be free of damaging blemishes, like cracks, bumps, scratches or disfiguring pits.

Finally, all of the pearls in a strand should be closely matched in terms of color, size and shape. They should all combine together to give an appearance of uniformity within the necklace.

CULTURED PEARL JEWELRY easily makes bridal dreams come true

Just as cultured pearls are perfect for the bride on her big day, pearl jewelry is equally appropriate as gifts for the entire bridal party. Cultured pearl pendants, bracelets or earrings will delight bridesmaids, while pearl shirt studs or cuff links are suitable for the men in the bridal party.

Buying a Diamond

A little knowledge can go a long way to help unearth the best-quality diamond within a budget. Understanding diamonds requires knowledge of the four C's: cut, color, clarity and carat weight. These four variables are key to answering the elusive question as to why two diamonds of equal size may not be of equal value.

• Cut - Although diamonds can be cut in several shapes, like oval, marquise, pear or round, it is the quality of the cut that gives the stone its brilliant sparkle. Light is reflected best when all of the facets are perfectly proportioned.

• Color - The best color is no color. A totally colorless diamond best allows white light to pass effortlessly through it and be dispersed as rainbows of color.

• Clarity - The term "clarity" refers to a diamond's lack of naturally occurring inclusions, often called "nature's fingerprints," most of which are not visible to the naked eye. The fewer the inclusions, the more valuable the diamond.

• Carat - Carat refers to the weight of the stone. There are 100 points in a carat. Therefore, a diamond of 50 points weighs one-half of a carat.

Board budget meeting Jan. 31

A major initial budget meeting for the Northern Berland-Carmichael Board of Education will be held Wednesday, Jan. 31, when trustees will be given a tentative and specific information on what the junior kindergarten and adult education cuts will mean.

Superintendent of business Ron Sudds says trustees will also "provide administration with general direction on the construction of a budget" that incorporates the anticipated provincial government funding cuts.

The tentative budget dates are now set for March 21, March 27, April 2 and April 10.

Board chairperson Bob Willsher described the reasons for the change at the meeting "is not a normal year and it's not a normal budget." He added that with grant information and possible changes in provincial education regulations which affect board budgets not coming until February or March "there is little value in going through the exercise before trustees have the information."

"How can a board make decisions if it doesn't have all the financial components?"

"Junior kindergarten is a good example. We know the funding has been reduced. The board will be discussing the value of the program but we can't make decisions on that program alone without knowing what the rest of the financial picture is," he said.

Flames lose pair on court

Clarke High School from Bowmanville made a successful invasion of Campbellford last week, sweeping a midget and junior doubleheader on the CDHS basketball court.

The midget Flames lost their game by a slim margin of two points to Clarke. Jeremy Gale, Ben Kerr and Mark Wilson responded with strong efforts in a losing cause.

The junior Flames lost their game by a 14-point margin to a sharp-shooting Clarke squad. The Flames had a marksmanship problem as they shot a mere 17 per cent from the floor. Clarke eventually prevailed 41-27.

Engineering ingenuity in Norwood

High tech order: Machine Dynamics Ltd. in Norwood has just wrapped up a major motor tooling project for Kentucky Machine and General Electric in Fort Wayne, Indiana. G.E. had contracted Machine Dynamics to design and build the motor casting fixtures for Kentucky Machine and engineering staff from both operations were in Norwood for the final assembly last week. The custom tooling fixtures produce 12 different frames of several widths (20 in. to 56 in. in length with a shallest diameter of 17 in.). They will be used in the production of large industrial motors (50 hp to 1500 hp). The Machine Dynamics design involves adjustable hydraulics and includes 16 hydraulic cylinders and eight separate valves. The hi tech project, nearly five months in the making, required "a lot of tight estimations." Joining Machine Dynamics President Grant Seabrooke (far right) are visitors Greg Allan and Anthony Sivaloff of Kentucky Machine and Scott Scirore of General Electric.

Police seek aid from public

Among the 56 calls responded to by the Campbellford OPP detachment in the period of Jan. 8-15, five were break-ins at area residences and there was a failed attempt on Anderson Island in Seymour Township.

A couple living in Belmont Township returned home and found that tools, a VCR and a Polaroid camera had been stolen. Thieves forced their way in to another home in Seymour Township and took a gold watch as well as a microwave oven and CD player.

In another incident in Belmont Township, property owners were gone for a few hours and upon their return found their home had been entered. Two boxes of tools and a pressure washer were taken. A cottage owner in Belmont/Methuen Township discovered his shed had been forced open and a snowmobile stolen. It's a 1981 Yamaha Enticer.

Due to the alarming increase in break-ins, many of which occur during daylight hours, police are once again urging the assistance of the public in watching for something unusual. People are asked to get as many details as possible such as descriptions, ages, vehicles and plate numbers, plus any other pertinent information.

The OPP emergency number is 1-800-461-6488.

Graham's Florist novices lose pair in tournament

Campbellford's Graham Florist novices faced some tough competition in a tournament on home ice recently, losing two of their three starts.

Despite a solid goaltending effort by Jeff Pugh and some good early scoring chances, the novice Colts finally dropped a 6-0 decision to Brighton in game one. Not discouraged by the result, the Graham kids battled back with an improved performance in game two and wound up with a 2-0 victory over Marmora.

Kelly Simpson chipped the puck out from behind the net to Matt Gleeson, who relayed to Jody Nicholas for the first goal. Dominating the play again in the Marmora end, Nick Ellis capitalized with a good shot to the glove side for the second goal. Tyler Allanson and Dane Ellis earned assists on the play. Jeff Pugh earned his second shutout of the season.

Campbellford came up against a fast-skating Belleville team in game three, losing 5-0. Trailing 2-0 going into the final period, the Colts suffered some defensive lapses and Belleville connected for three more goals. Brett Reid, Mike Locke and Dan Petherick played well but failed to cash in on some early scoring chances.

Make fine showing at Shining Waters

Individual, team titles for Campbellford skaters

By Rolly Ethier

Warkworth: The coaches and executive of the Campbellford Figure Skating Club had reason to smile proudly over the performances of their competitors at the annual Shining Waters Inter-Club championships here on the week end.

About 200 skaters, representing other area localities such as Quinte, Norwood, Warkworth, Stirling, Marmora, Warsaw, Hastings and Havelock, took part in the two-day meet. The event was staged quite proficiently by the host Warkworth Figure Skating Club under chairperson Arlene Lowe.

Campbellford returned home with the intermediate team trophy in the first-day competition after excelling in the beginner's and open events as well as the preliminary and preliminary ladies classes. A total of 28 Campbellford skaters participated.

Overall, Campbellford managed only one individual title courtesy of Erin Foote, who captured the preliminary ladies flight one crown.

Warkworth skaters, meanwhile, took two individual titles. Kate Lowe getting the nod of the judges in the pre-preliminary ladies flight one event and the team of Ashley Thrower and Rachel Young taking top honours in the junior bronze shadow dance pairs.

The Campbellford skaters also added no fewer than seven second-place medals—winning three singles events, three more in pairs competition and also a runner-up placing in the pre-beginner's team event.

Kaitlyn Tinney and Ashley Dunlay both registered second-place efforts in the preliminary ladies flight two while Trisha Metcalf finished second behind Samantha Lander of Warsaw in the pre-proficiency ladies and men's class.

In the preliminary shadow dance, Earlene Thomson and Amanda Watters teamed up to place runner-up while Jennifer Foote and Natalie Massey took second in the beginner's similar pairs. Another Campbellford twosome, Ashley Tunney and Lauren Niemi, also managed a second-place performance in the open similar pairs.

Campbellford earned off another second-place showing behind Marmora in the pre-beginner's team category thanks to the efforts of young Aaron Bailey, Valerie Dunlay, Sherry and Maryanne Greenwood.

Winter composting -- what's the problem

by Marvin Tucker
Education Coordinator

Much of the focus of waste/reduction is placed on the recycling program. A larger portion of our waste, however, is made up of non-recyclable material that is organic in nature and can be composted.

About 46 per cent of our waste is made up of food scraps, leaf and yard waste. Backyard composting is a great tool to help reduce waste. It is unfortunate that use of backyard composters tends to fall off a bit this time of year.

There are two main ways that the onset of winter can have a negative impact on people's willingness to use their backyard composter.

Firstly, can anyone say that they really enjoy truging out to the composter when the temperature's below zero and there's a foot of snow on the ground? Not likely!

The secret here is to make this chore as painless as possible. I once visited a lady in Belleville whose son had rigged up a very imaginative system. From the deck outside her back kitchen door, she simply had to pull up on a string to open the lid of her composter and then empty her kitchen pail of food scraps into it.

While such a simple set up may not be possible for everyone, it clearly illustrates just how easy it can be. The biggest hang-up people have to get over is the idea that the composter must be located at the back of the yard.

If you feel better about it being there during the summer and you don't mind the trek, that's fine. But, during the winter, when the potential for odour problems doesn't exist, why not move your composter closer to the house? You can even put it right up to the back door.

The other common problem in the winter that we constantly hear about is that the composter freezes up and quickly ends up being full -- then what?

While a properly managed composter can continue to work through the winter, admittedly at a much slower rate, the reality is that most have frozen solid by now.

If you still have room in your composter, there's no reason you can't continue to use it. The secret here is to start off the cold season with an empty composter. This means emptying it in late fall. This is a great time to put finished compost on the garden. If you didn't have time now, just make a pile with it in the corner of the yard and leave it until Spring.

That's all fine and dandy you say, but your composter is full now.

Well, get yourself a second composter. Composters can still be purchased at a cost that is subsidized by the provincial government. That means they're as cheap as $14.

Here's a system I use that makes winter composting easy, reduces maintenance to a minimum, and avoids the problem of a full composter.

During the warm months, I use my regular composter which sits in a permanent location close to the garden. I will empty whatever I can during the fall simply by digging the good stuff out of the bottom door.

The unfinished compost I leave in the unit. This allows me to continue using this composter well into the winter. Invariably, however, this composter fills up by mid-winter. At this point, I leave it alone and switch to the second composter, located conveniently at the back of the house.

This composter is a barrel-type. I prefer this because I will want to move this composter away from the house sometime in the spring and I can turn the barrel on its side and roll it wherever I like.

By late spring the first composter will be cooking like crazy, and have lots of room in it. I can take some finished stuff out for more room if I like, and continue to use it for quite a few months. Compost for a while out completely. It's where ever-ably back to a simple system that I will be in a comporound. Fun fact: food waste going to landfill reduced by 45 per cent in 1980s, as a of backya. This has re all waste cent

Notes from the Queensborough W.I.

by Erika Gammage

The Queensborough Recreation Hall was filled with the sound of music. Seven members, one guest and numerous music boxes were present at the December meeting of the Queensborough W.I.

In keeping with the roll call, "Bring or tell about a unique gift that you have received". W.I. members gave a gift of their own. Knitted squares and wool were donated to the Association for the Disabled in Mazabuka. This non-governmental organization provides employment for the disabled in southern Zambia by assembling the squares into blankets for the poor.

Following a short business meeting the program was turned over to Erika Gammage who displayed her collection of music boxes. Most had a Christmas theme and strains of Silent Night, Toy Town, Jingle Bells, etc. filled the hall.

A tongue twister competition was next. It was won by Robin Braden who managed to read a list of Christmas tongue twisters with few faults. She received a beautiful stained glass heart ornament made by Erika.

A cardinal music box was playing "Deck the Halls" while W.I. members explored some winter festivals from the past and present. Celebrations during the mid-winter season were common even before Christmas was celebrated on Dec. 25. The most notable being that of Winter Solstice on shortest day of the year. It celebrates the return of sun as the days get longer.

The programs came to a close with a game that involved the naming of Christmas sayings and songs. Tonny Braden won a stained-glass angel with her 12 correct answers.

Refreshments followed. Thanks to the hostess Dorothy Lees, Erika Gammage for the sandwiches and Roberta Ramsay for the delicious cake.

Assessment Open Houses held in Township

by Jeff Wilson

About seven or eight per cent of property owners in Madoc Township attended the three Assessment Open House sessions last week.

According to Assessment Commissioner Ernie Thain 116 property owners (49 the first day, 40 the second and 27 on the third) attended the sessions to discuss their assessments arrived at by regional assessment office.

In an interview, Thain said that between five and 10 per cent of property owners usually attend the open house sessions. The turnout at the Madoc Township can be explained by the fact that many properties in the municipality were based at 1940 levels, and a lot was occurred over the span of time from 1940 to the new base year of 1992, Thain said.

Most property owners were looking for an explanation of how their assessment was arrived at, with a couple of landowners saying they would fight their assessments, Thain said.

As a result of the open house sessions, some assessments were revised after property owners informed the assessors of discrepancies like a roadway being seasonal, rather than maintained year-around or a building no longer existing on the property.

Overall, Thain said the sessions went smoothly.

To date, the assessment office has held open house sessions in Tyendinaga, Deseronto, Tweed Village, Elzevir and Grimsithe Townships, Tudor and Cashel Townships, Duncannon Township and Faraday Township.

Madoc Village will have assessment open houses on Feb. 6, 7 and 8 from 1 to 8 p.m. at the village office.

Health Unit set to wipe out Measles

Over 30,000 students from junior kindergarten to OAC in Hastings and Prince Edward Counties will receive a second dose of measles vaccine between January and June.

Nurses from the Hastings and Prince Edward Counties Health Unit will administer the vaccine in school clinics. The vaccine is only available through the health unit and doctors will not have the same vaccine.

This second dose of measles vaccine is part of Ontario's province-wide campaign to eliminate measles by the year 2000. Wiping out measles is a goal Ontario and Canada share with many countries worldwide.

Canada comprises 3.6 per cent of the population of the Americas, but was responsible for 79 per cent of reported cases of measles last year.

Measles is a highly contagious viral disease. Complications include ear infections, pneumonia and brain damage. Approximately one in every 3,000 people who get measles dies.

Until now, the recommended routine immunization against measles has

No UFO's, just military training

The skies over northeast Madoc will be lit up in late January, not from UFO's, but rather from military exercises being conducted by CFB Trenton.

424 Search and Rescue Squadron (SAR) from Trenton will be conducting flare training at Grimsithe Lake on Jan. 29 and 30 between 5-10 p.m.

Each evening, a Hercules aircraft will drop about 20 flares to practise night illumination. Each flare emits approximately 1.6 to 2 million candlepower of light for a five-minute period.

Ten Search and Rescue technicians (SAR Techs) will also practise nighttime parachuting in the area. A Labrador helicopter will pick up the SAR Techs and return them to Trenton.

It is necessary for SAR crews to maintain currency with flare drops, because nighttime illumination is essential to SAR operations. Flares are used in many SAR scenarios, such as hoisting personnel from ships at nighttime, identifying crash locations when there is not enough light, and illuminating an area prior to SAR techs parachuting into it in the darkness.

February is Heart and Stroke Month

Local canvassers for the Heart and Stroke Foundation will be canvassing the village and surrounding area during the entire month of February.

In an effort to give something back to the local community, a blood pressure clinic is being organized. The clinic will be held at the Madoc Public Library, every Wednesday from 1 to 3 p.m. A registered nurse will record blood pressure levels once every month. Watch for a start date in a future article.

The Heart and Stroke Foundation of Ontario announced that it is releasing a province-wide reference guide to community-based resources for stroke survivors. The guide is the first of its kind in Canada, and will help stroke survivors and their families find and access a variety of stroke services, organizations and clubs.

Stroke is the leading cause of adult neurological disability in Ontario and the fourth single largest cause of death. The Foundation estimates that there are at least 60,000 stroke survivors in Ontario, the majority of whom are living at home and relying on community-based services for rehabilitation, care and counselling.

As well as the Stroke Resource Guide, the Heart and Stroke Foundation of Ontario offers booklets and fact sheets that help to explain how stroke affects behavior, how to care for a stroke survivor, and how to prevent stroke. Information on stroke and copies of the Foundation's Stroke Resource Guide are available through the Foundation's toll-free 1-800-Heart and Stroke Helpline (1-800-366-1553).

lan Lighthill, volunteer chair of the Stroke Committee for the Heart and Stroke Foundation of Ontario, noted that the resource guide was a response to concerns and issues identified during the Foundation's research among stroke survivors and caregivers.

In addition to these services, the Heart and Stroke Foundation of Ontario supports research on the causes, prevention and treatment of stroke. In 1995, the Foundation committed $3 million to stroke research, the single largest grant of its kind in Canada.

FAC applications finally available

The OPP will be begin phoning people who put their names on our list prior to Dec. 31, 1995, in order that the names were received.

Quinte OPP ask that people don't call the detachment unless they have been contacted to avoid creating further delays in processing the application.

New vice-principals for Centre Hastings

At its Jan.-15 meeting, The Hastings County Board of Education approved the appointment of Robert (Bob) Holt to the position of Vice-Principal (temporary) at Centre Hastings Secondary School.

Holt will fill the vacancy left by the departure of current Vice-Principal Diane Holt who has accepted a Principalship with the Northumberland-Clarington Board of Education at Campbellford District High School.

Holt has been with The Hastings Board of Education for 26 years and has been a teacher at B.C.I. and V.S. as school computer site administrator and since 1986 has been the Board's Computer Co-ordinator.

The Board believes that Holt's varied business and computer studies teaching skills will be a definite asset in his new assignment and looks forward to the contributions he will make as a member of the administrative team at Centre Hastings Secondary School.

ings Secondary School.

In an interview, Holt said he had the opportunity to get to know the area through his job as computer co-ordinator and likes both the school and community. He added that the school is one of his two favorites and is looking forward to the challenge.

CHSS also welcomes back former staff member Elmer Buchanan, who took over as the other vice-principal position on Jan. 8.

Buchanan returns from political life, where he served as the Minister of Agriculture for the province. As the Minister, Buchanan said he learned focus on both sides of an issue, and at the same time, balancing everyone's interests, which will serve him in his new position.

In an interview, Buchanan said the adjustment back into the educational field has been hectic. The adjustment has been made easier by the fact that he previously taught at the school for 13 years and still knows many staff members.

He recalled the first time he walked into the cafeteria, he was directed to the location of the sandwiches by Kate Kincaid, without even asking.

His challenge over the next while will be to learn the names of the students, he said.

been a single dose of measles vaccine as soon as possible after a child's first birthday.

A single dose of measles vaccine fails to protect 5-10 per cent of children. This is borne out by more than 2,000 measles cases that occurred in Ontario last year in children, many of whom had previously received one dose of measles vaccine. A second dose of measles vaccine increases protection to almost 100 per cent of immunized children.

The law has been changed to require students have two valid doses of measles vaccine in order to attend school in Ontario.

The first dose must be given after a child's first birthday and the second dose at least one month later.

At the end of this campaign, the routine immunization schedule will include a second dose of measles vaccine at the same time a child receives his/her 4-6 year booster of DPT-P vaccine (diphtheria, pertussis, tetanus, and polio).

In preparation for the immunization campaign, students will be given consent forms and additional information to take home from school.

Parents, guardians, and students should read the information, consider it, and return the completed and signed consent to the school as soon as possible.

Vaccine safety

This vaccine is safe and has been used in Canada for over 25 years. It takes effect in 10 to 14 days. Most children, especially those who have been vaccinated before and are immune to measles, will not have any reaction.

The Hastings and Prince Edward Counties Health Unit has set up a "Measles Information Line" to provide additional information about measles and the immunization campaign.

To access this information line, call 1-613-966-5513, Ext. 229. Where long distances charges apply, please call 1-613-966-5500 (collect) Ext. 229. A message may also be left at this extension to have a nurse return the call.

Surprise honours for local editor

Norwood - Bill Freeman, editor of the Norwood Register and Hastings Star, received a surprise presentation from Norwood District High School and the Peterborough County Board of Education a few weeks ago.

The certificate, presented by NDHS principal Dave Myrvold, cites Mr. Freeman's "role in promoting the community's understanding of public education issues and the accomplishments of the students and staff of Norwood District High."

"Schools in small towns have a tremendous impact on the people and communities they serve," Mr. Freeman said. "All too often people take for granted the hard work, long hours and the commitment to teaching displayed by people in our local schools."

"Intelling their story, and bringing educational issues closer to the public, I hope I'm able to make local residents realize something of the vital role educational institutions play in their communities.

"They're much more than commodities," Mr. Freeman said, "even though ignorant and ill-informed people are quick to use that term."

Mr. Freeman added that "it might do decision-makers the world of good if they went back to school for a while and got to know what they are really all about."

Slap Shot, Part Deux? Former NHL'er Jack Valiquette showed his loyalty to the movie "Slap Shot" during Saturday's oldtimers tilt against the Campbellford all stars. ### Esther outlives five children, celebrates her 100th birthday

By Rolly Ethier

A woman who has outlived all of her five children and credits hard work and a strong Christian belief for her long life, celebrated her 100th birthday last Thursday at Dorland House Retirement Home, south of Orland.

Esther Kennedy, who lived in Toronto most of her life, suddenly found herself in the media spotlight as flashbulbs popped and strangers asked all kinds of questions trying to discover the secret of her longevity.

And unlike the celebrated George Burns, who reached his 100th birthday recently but was in ill health, Mrs. Kennedy was still spry, alert and able to enjoy all the festivities.

Esther has been a delightful resident of Joan and Dave Dorland's small retirement home north of Brighton for the past four years. She moved there to be closer to relatives. The relocation enables granddaughter Cindy Mummery, her husband Harry, and their children to visit Esther on a regular basis.

Born in Guysborough County, Nova Scotia on Jan. 25th, 1896, Esther has heard

ing impairment, poor eyesight and walks with a cane, but she's still in pretty good health. She continues to retain the memory of the special events in her life.

Slightly perplexed with all the attention she was getting, Esther says hard work kept her active all her life. Her grand-daughter says she continued to operate her own hotel business in Toronto until she was 87. She has also retained a strong affiliation with her Roman Catholic faith, has never smoked or drunk alcoholic beverages and one of her simple enjoyments of life remains "a good cup of tea."

Although all five of her children are now deceased, Esther has 11 grandchildren, 18 great-grandchildren and seven great-great grandchildren.

Mrs. Kennedy was adopted by an uncle and was the youngest of five girls in the family in Nova Scotia at the turn of the century. She married Stephen Kennedy in 1915 and they moved to Halifax in 1917, just two days after the great explosion in the harbour that levelled most of the city, including the home they were scheduled to move into.

Her husband became a policeman in Halifax and was a one-time champion hammer thrower in the Commonwealth Games. He was also shot in the line of duty with the bullet coming within an eighth inch of his heart. The shooting subsequently led to his retirement from the force. Although Cindy didn't have the exact dates, she says Stephen died about 35 years ago and Esther has been on her own ever since.

The Kennedys moved to Toronto in 1933 and bought the St. Leonard's Hotel, operating the place for decades.

There was a beautiful bouquet of flowers and a handsome 100th birthday cake for Esther at Dorland House last Thursday to mark the memorable occasion. Then on Saturday she was the guest of honour at a big family party at the Brighton Lions Club. Some 50 to 60 relatives "from Vancouver to Moncton" were expected to be in attendance to offer their best wishes to a grand old lady with a lot of old-fashioned "true grit."

More Able Than Disabled

by Barbara Bruce-Prealow

Things Not to Do While Travelling

So you're disabled and want to go on a trip. Here are the top 10 things not to do.

1) Don't wait to the last minute to arrange your trip. Flying by the seat of your pants might get your posterior burned.

Seat Sales are the answer. You'll have to stay over a Saturday night but, with great savings, who cares.

2) Don't just take any seat on the plane or any plane. Some planes are better than others in accommodating the disabled...your seat might be out on the wing...a little breezy.

When making reservations, ask for the bulkhead. It has more room. Always explain that you are disabled when you call and what your special needs may be.

3) Don't presume to get a rental car at your destination, the Shriners might be in town and all the cars they have left are Model T's. Always ask what their specials are and the possibility of an upgrade. Don't forget if you need a specially-equipped vehicle, inform the car rental company at the time you make the reservation.

4) Don't expect a handicapped room available when you arrive at your hotel. Believe it or not, there are other disabled travellers who might have booked ahead for that room.

Call ahead and make your reservations well in advance. Also, tell them what type of room you need.

5) Don't pack 10 minutes before you leave. You'll have everything including the kitchen sink and probably will have forgotten your cane.

Two bags max...one carry-on with necessities, medication, etc., and the other one with everything else.

6) Don't get tickets to attractions without reading ahead of time if they are accessible for your needs.

Write or call ahead, the Kumba rollercoaster might look great in the travel brochures but may not be accessible. Really cuts down on disappointments.

7) If you are going to the beach, don't expect it to be accessible. I have found very few beaches from Hawaii to Florida to PEI are accessible for my wheelchair.

Maybe we all can help change this situation...call your elected officials. Make beaches accessible.

8) Don't leave home with an attitude unless it is positive and upbeat. I guarantee you will see a reflection of yourself in the people you meet.

Holidays are for fun...for you and everyone in your party.

9) Don't plan to do 10,000 things in one day. Remember there is always tomorrow.

10) Don't plan ahead, just be spontaneous. That is a guarantee for a trip from hell.

Barbara's notes: The above was submitted by Jane Danielson, Dartmouth, N.S.

Jane Danielson is a freelance travel writer and poet and has been published in Canada and United States. She became mobility disabled seven years ago and uses a cane and wheelchair. Jane believes that travelling is a prescription for a healthy, positive outlook, especially for the disabled but really for everyone.

Some of Jane's articles include Camping in a National Park, Whale Watching on Brief Island, Fun in Florida and Healing Powers of Hawaii. Her travel articles always look at the positive aspects of travelling, with a realization of the obstacles that must be overcome to achieve this experience.

Her poems reflect the frustrations and need for courage when one is disabled as well as hope for the future.

Madoc Minor Hockey Report

period, Ryan Baumen knocked in the winner, with assists from Derek Thibault and Mike McCann.

The Pee-wee series came to an end for Deseronto with an 8-2 Wildcat win on Jan. 22. Ryan Baumen had a super game, chalking up one goal and three assists. Jesse Cassidy, Derek Thibault, Mike McCann, Jason Wilson, Derrick Blackburn and Mike Leaver recorded the other Madoc goals. Assists were recorded by Mike McCann, Jesse Cassidy, Chad Trotter, T.J. Tomlinson, Brandon McLean, Rob Curtis and a pair from Derek Thibault.

Sunday, Jan. 21, our Bantams travelled to North Frontenac for a heart-stopping first of a best of seven game series. North Frontenac hit the board midway through period one, with a pair of goals a minute apart. Chris Nickle popped in unassisted goal with barely over a minute left in the period, the end the first 2-1 lead for the host team. Period two was a defensive showdown with neither team leaving a mark. With all but 2.5 minutes left in regulation time, Chris Nickle passed to Darrell Baumen to tie the match at two all. Fans for both teams sat on the edge of their seats for 5.5 minutes of overtime, until Mike Empey made a perfect pass to Chris Nickle to drive in the winning goal as the Wildcats took game one 3-2.

On the road on Tuesday, Jan. 23, our Novice D's tied their series with Marmora at one game apiece with a 2-1 victory and our Atoms fell 2-0 in their series with Deseronto suffering an 8-1 loss.

Game 3 of the Atom's five game series with Deseronto was their closest game yet. A scoreless first was followed by a pair of goals for the visitors in period two. Down 2-0, the Wildcats poured it on in period three. Justin Cassidy started our comeback with an unassisted goal, less than a minute into the third. Ten seconds later, Tyler Gordon passed to Rob Reynolds to tie the game. At the four minute mark of the third, shorthanded two men, Justin popped in another unassisted goal to take a 3-2 lead. Deseronto pulled their goaltender in the dying minute of the game, and the man advantage paid off, as the visitors tied the game with 23 seconds left in regulation time. Fifty seconds into overtime, Deseronto ended the game and the series with an unassisted goal. Best of luck to the Atom in the Hastings and District playdowns.

Our Bantam Wildcats hosted North Frontenac for the second of their seven game series. Jereme Francis lit up the board for the home team in period one, with an assist from Justin McArthur. Early in the second, North Frontenac tied the match at 1-1 and got the go-ahead goal shortly thereafter. Ryan Vanness passed to Justin McArthur to tie things up before the end of the second. Period three belonged to the visitors with a pair of unanswered goals to win them the match 4-2. These teams are so well-matched, that this series is sure to be a nail biter.

Our Pee-wees met Tweed in game one of their second series of first round action, skating to a 3-3 tie. Expect this series to provide plenty of action in the tradition of all long-standing rivalries.

Saturday, Jan. 27, our Tykes off the day with an awesome seven goal shut-out over visiting Havelock. Tyler Higgins shone like the North Star with five goals and one assist. Brennan Robinson chalked up one goal and an assist and Andy Moore fired in an unassisted goal. Brian McNab notched up two assists, while Dan Campkin recorded a single. Congratulations to Ben Spooner with the shut-out. Even Tyke Wildcats can roar!

Game three of the Novice D series saw the home team fall 3-1 to their rivals from Marmora. Period one and two were scoreless, but third period action saw Marmora pour it on, with three quick goals. Chad McLean broke Marmora's shut-out with 21 seconds left in the match. Matt Maguire assists on Chad's goal, as the D's fell behind two games to one in this best of five series.

The Novice E's started their semi-final round-robin series on Jan. 24 with a big 5-1 win over their Warkworth hosts. Game two matched our Wildcats with the Frankford Huskies at home on Jan. 27. An unassisted goal by Tanner Alford gave our Wildcats a 1-0 lead in the opening minute of the first. Frankford tied the game at the midpoint of the period. Period two was scoreless, but the Huskies came on strong in the third, with two unanswered goals. Best wishes to the Novice E's in their battle to bring a 1996 OMHA title home to Madoc.
